Life's Reflections

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. -Psalm 23: 1-3

Robert Douglas Carter was born on July 2, 1945, in Prince Edward County, Virginia. He departed this life on August 22, 2026, surrounded by family and friends at his bedside.

For more than three decades, Robert worked at Hampden-Sydney College before retiring in 2009. Shortly after his retirement, his beloved wife of more than 49 years, Daisy Mae Carter, became ill. Robert cared for Daisy in their home with devotion and tenderness until her passing in September 2019. Even as his own health declined, his steadfast dedication and unwavering commitment to her well-being stood as an admired example of true love between husband and wife.

Throughout his life, Robert held a deep appreciation for the humanity in others, a steadfast belief in the dignity of every person, and an unwavering commitment to treating all people with respect. These were not merely values he expressed, but principles he lived by. Robert understood that every person carries a story, every life has value, and everyone deserves to be seen, heard, and treated with kindness. He will be remembered for his generous spirit and joyful sense of humor. Robert had a special gift for making others laugh, offering words of wisdom, and bringing light to those around him.

Robert was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Daisy; his brother, William; and his parents, Rosa and Robert, Sr.

Robert leaves to cherish his memory his two sons, Michael and James; his grandson, Miles; his siblings, Michael and John; and a host of relatives and friends.
