

To Those I Love

When I am gone, release me, let go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love; you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I travel on alone.

So grieve a while for me if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call, and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you, soft and clear.

And then when you must come this way alone,
We'll meet in Heaven around God's throne.
Your Loving Family

THE LOVE THAT I HAVE FOR YOU,
THE WHOLE WORLD CAN'T HOLD IT.

Obituary

DAVID MICKLE, JR., affectionally known as "Junior," 40 of Augusta, Georgia, passed away on Sunday, June 4, 2023, after a brief illness. Junior was born on November 16, 1982, to the late David Mickle, Sr., and Beulah Mickle of Estill, South Carolina. He was the youngest of three siblings. He grew up in the home on Chocolate City Road, Nixville, South Carolina, and later in life, resided in Augusta, Georgia, with his children and the mother of his children, LaTasha Joyner. He was a wonderful and dedicated father to his children.

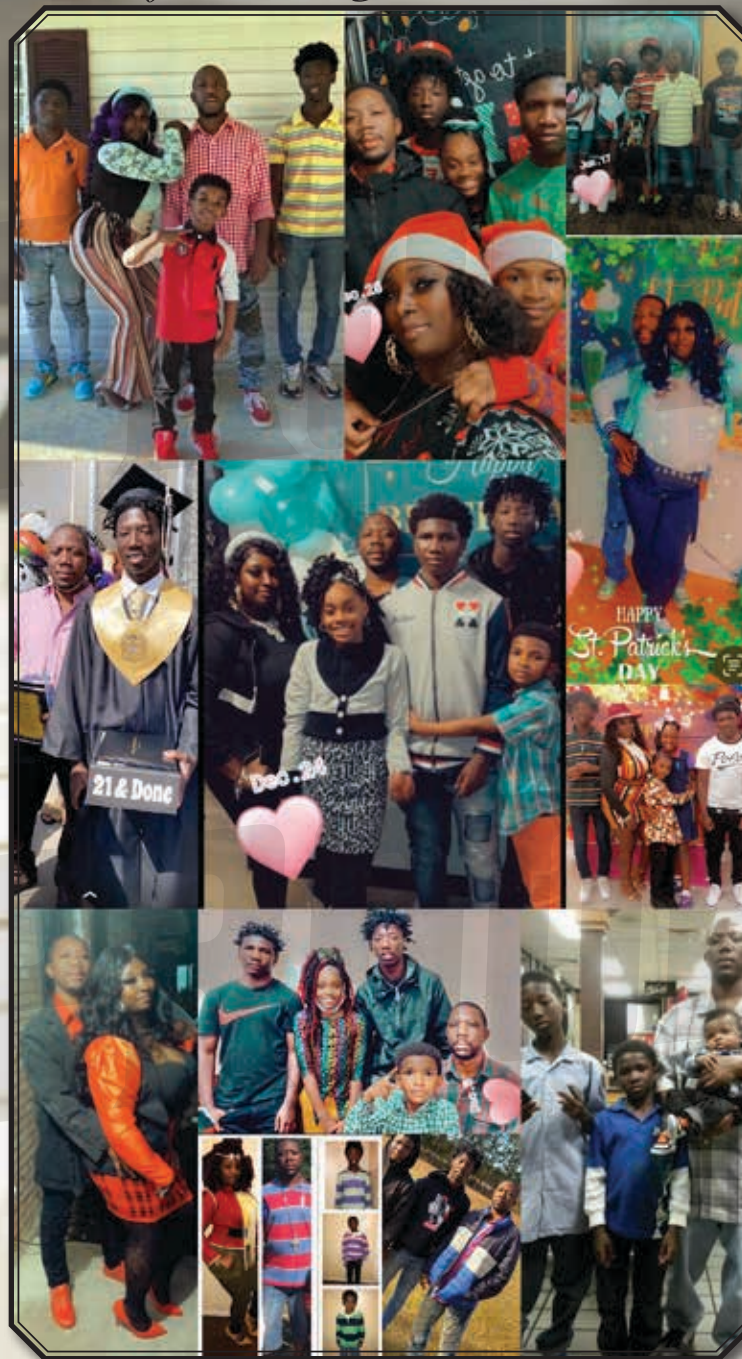

Junior graduated from Wade Hampton High School in 2002 and was later employed at Custom Cleaners, Hilton Head, South Carolina, for a short period of time. He enjoyed playing basketball, fishing, and spending time with his family and friends. Junior was a caring and loving person that brought joy and happiness to everyone he touched.

Junior joined the True Holiness Church of Islandton, South Carolina, at a very early age and developed a love for music and became an anointed and very skillful keyboardist. He was hired to play the keyboard for various churches over the years, namely the Antioch Christian Church of Varnville, South Carolina. He also worked for seventeen years at Allendale Community Funeral Home. After relocating to Augusta, Georgia, he was hired as a keyboardist for the Augusta Christain Church of Augusta, Georgia. Junior also participated in a mentorship program called (from boys to men) with Dana Lucas.

He was preceded in death by his father, David Mickle, Sr.; paternal grandparents, Doretha Smoaks, Walter Nathaniel, and Sudie Gordon; maternal grandparents, Horace and Pastor Mary M. Mole; aunts and uncles, Maude Saunders, Barbara Johnson, Nathaniel M. Gordon, Daniel and Lula Mae Haynes, Jessie and Williard Mole, Francis Haynes, Sharon Housey, Charles Fludd, and Darryl Joyner.

Surviving to cherish his memories: his mother, Beulah Mickle of Nixville, SC; children, Jquan Mickle, Davian Mickle and Dayven Mickle; an adopted niece/daughter, Tariyah Fludd; the love of his life for twenty-three years, LaTasha Fludd; adopted brother, Franklin Ruth of Estill, SC; Overseer Shirley Fludd, whom he called Ma, of Augusta, GA; a very special young lady, Maliyah Howard of Hampton, SC; brothers, Derriel (Kimberly) Mickle and Chris (Samantha) Mickle, both of Nixville, SC; aunts and uncles, Mary Ann Johnson, Elnora and John Newton, Bobby Mickle, Peggy Mickle, Terrance Haynes, Orin (Justine) Gordon, Eloan (Louise) Gordon, Randolph (Gloria) Gordon, Johnnie (Thomasina) Gordon, and Oneal (Georgia) Mole; godmothers, Linda Singleton and Laverne Williams; great-aunts and uncles, Addie A. Haynes, Herbert Lee Gordon, Alice Kelly, Annie Clyear, and Margaret Mole; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family, and friends.
