I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace... at close of play

And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now...He set me free.

Reflection of Life

Lula Mae Black was born in Barnwell County, South Carolina on February 27, 1932 to Johnnie Joyner and Sylvia Baxter-Joyner. On St. Patrick's Day, the Lord came to claim his pot of gold and Lula Mae entered into eternal rest on Sunday, March 17, 2024 at her residence surrounded by her family.

The world lost a beloved mother, Lula Mae Black!! She was a Woman of Faith who devoted her time willingly and without hesitation. Her smile was contagious and infectious as she was a social butterfly. She was educated in the public schools of Allendale County. At an early age she joined Magdalene Christian Church (DOC) and was later baptized. She was the current Mother of the Church.

She worked many years in the school system as a cook. At Cedar Knoll Hunting Club, she cleaned, cooked, and took care of their family as if they were her own. Her friends and colleagues knew her as a kind soul, always willing to cheer people up with hugs and a smile. She loved watching Kung Fu and comedy movies with her daughters as she was always laughing and joking with them. One of her many favorite things to do was driving to Georgia in her free time as she frequented flea markets and never forgot to buy her lottery tickets before coming home. But what she did not like, is Rose knowing her whereabouts as she would always say, “I’m the mother, that’s my business.”

She also enjoyed her time at Triple E Daycare for over 20 years creating memories by celebrating birthdays, holidays, and other special occasions with her second family. In her spare time, she conversed for hours on the telephone laughing and joking with her friends from the daycare center.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Joseph Benjamin Black.

She was preceded in death by her parents; youngest son, Benjamin Neil Black; five sisters and eight brothers.

She leaves behind two daughters and eldest son: Rose Marie Black (caregiver) of the home, TeResa Ray (Phillip) Black-Byers of Brandywine, MD and Joseph Nathaniel (Jeanette) Joyner of Allendale, SC; a very special niece, Doris "Sister" Smith (i.e., taught Aunt Lue a special vocabulary) to use towards Rose specifically; two best friends: Rumella Bradley and William Odom; six grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other loving relatives.

Lula Mae (Joyner) Black, God's "Lucky Charm" is officially home with Him!
