

WELCOME HOME

To those I love and those who love me,
When I am gone, release me; let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me in tears;
Be happy that we had so many years.

I give you my love and you can only guess
how much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it's time I travel on alone.

So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must;
then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call & I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me,
I'll be near; and if you listen with your heart
you'll hear my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say, "Welcome Home."

I KNOW

I know I have to let you go.
How I will, I do not know.
I know that it's your time to die.
What I don't know is how to say good-bye.
I'll miss you so much
I don't know what to do.
I guess I'll just end this poem
With a good-bye and an I love you.

A LETTER TO MY CHILDREN

It broke my heart in a million pieces to leave you,
But I'm free from all the pains and worries of this world.
Tears will fall, and my heart aches for all of you,
But the time has come for me to take this path alone.
Though we are miles and miles apart,
My love for you will never die!
The Lord above has a watchful eye,
And He will guide our steps and hold you close.

Hold fast to your dreams with a purpose
And remember the lessons you have learned.
And know, the love I have for you, will see you through.
One day, we will meet again
and what a day of rejoicing that will be.

Go forth Glenn, Shone, Brandon, Cameron and MaKayla with boldness.
Keep your hands in God's hand and everything will be alright.
Reflect on the good times we have shared,
And they have meant so much to me.
Even in all tears and pain,
Just know I love and miss you just as much.

Your Dad, Glenn

Reflection of Life

MR. GLENN DOUGLAS BRODUS, age 61, was born on August 19, 1962 to the late Herman and Marie Brodus.

He was educated in the public schools of Allendale County and was a member of the Class of 1981. Seeking God's direction and guidance, he joined Mt. Hope Baptist Church at an early age; where he interacted with his family and friends in church activities. He was employed by NBS of Williston, South Carolina.

Glenn will be remembered for his unrelenting love for his family and friends. At heart, Glen was witty and a true jokester. He checked on family often and you would always get a call from him checking on everybody.

He was preceded in death by both parents; maternal and paternal grandparents; aunts; uncles; nieces and nephews.

Glenn leaves to cherish his memory five children: daughter, MaKayla Banks and four sons: Glenn (Amanda) Curry, Shone Brodus, Brandon Banks and Cameron Brook Jackson; two sisters: Priscilla Brodus and Charles Ann Mack; a brother, Herman (Annie) Brodus; five aunts: Anna C. Riley, Francis Allen, Annie M. Brodus, Willie R. (John Henry) Drayton and Francenia (Wilson) Brodus; three uncles: Donald Smith, Jay S. Brodus and Fred Brodus Jr.; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and sympathizing friends.
