I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times,
a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Reflection of Life

Jerry Lee Mack, age 69, affectionately known as “Pretty Man” was born on May 24, 1955 in Bamberg, South Carolina to the late Dave Mack Sr. and the late Lou Ella Odom Mack. He departed this life on July 21, 2024 at his residence in Barnwell, South Carolina.

He was educated in the public schools of Barnwell County. At an early age, he joined New Home Missionary Baptist Church in Barnwell. At the age of 21, he started his career as an international Truck Driver. In 2023, after 47 years of driving, he retired.

Music was his passion and he loved playing his guitar. He started the Jerry Mack and the Blues Brothers and later Jerry Mack and the Joy Gospel Singers. His music has been enjoyed by everyone for many years.

He was preceded in death by both parents; one son, Levern Workman; one brother, Lugene Mack; two sisters: Doris Tooks and Mildred Harris.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories, a loving and devoted wife of 42 years, Geneva Mack of the home; six children: Alfred (Kayla) Tooks, Jerrica Mack, Sophia Mack, Angel Ashley, Chasity Ashley and Devanta Ashley all of Barnwell, SC; a special son, Hanspert “Buster” Akins; two brothers: Dave (Clara) Mack and Leon (Adelle) Mack both of Barnwell, SC; two sisters: Elizabeth Johnson of Blackville, SC and Kitty Mack of Barnwell, SC; seven granddaughters, eleven grandsons and one great grandchild all of Barnwell, SC; eight sisters-in-law; six brothers-in-law; special friends: George Brown, Vivian Workman, Johnette Tims, Mae Helen Hunter, and Barbara Rice; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and sympathizing friends. Jerry will be greatly missed by his family, friends and community.
