

All is Well

Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped into the next room.
I am I, and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other,
That we are still.
Call me by my old familiar name,
Speak to me in the easy way
Which you always used to.
Put no difference in your tone,
Wear no forced air or solemnity or sorrow,
Laugh as we always laughed
At the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word
That it always was.
Let it be spoken without effect,
Without the trace of shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same as it ever was;
There is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind
Because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you, for an interval,
Somewhere very near, just around the corner.
All is well.

The Family

Reflection of Life

Alfred Brooker was born on May 12, 1943, to Janie Lou and Quillie Brooker, Jr. He was the second of ten children born to this union. He peacefully passed away on August 7, 2024, at the family home, surrounded by family. At an early age, he joined New Hope Methodist Church in Allendale, SC. He attended C. V. Bing High School where he was a bus driver. After high school, Alfred moved to Philadelphia, PA, where he spent the majority of his adult life. Shortly after arriving in Philadelphia, he trained for his commercial driver's license and became a long-distance truck driver. He was employed with the J. B. Hunt Company for almost thirty years. During those years, he moved cargo throughout the continental United States.

As a young man, he met and later married Linda Roane. To his union, there were five children born. During the marriage, he joined the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses where he was very active in field service. He thoroughly enjoyed the fellowship of the witnesses and cherished the joy of family and friends. His family will always remember him for his infectious laughter.

After retiring from J.B. Hunt Company, Alfred moved back to Allendale, SC, where he worked part-time as a security guard at the local hospital for several years. He joined the fellowship of the Kingdom Hall in Barnwell, SC, where he met new friends and witnesses, and became active in the field service there. Throughout Alfred's life, he found great joy in socializing with family and close friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, wife, son [Kenneth], and two brothers [Bonnie and Timothy].

Alfred leaves a host of relatives and friends to cherish his memory, including his children: Rhonda Caldwell [Robert], Uthman Abdul Musawwir [Sara], Sonya Phipps [Fitzroy], Tanya Brooker, Terrence T. Brooker, Sr. [Stacey-Ann], Louise Pringle, and Raheem Brooker; 18 grandchildren; 8 great-grandchildren; siblings Richard Brooker [Ruth], Louise B. Bing [Edward], Rosa Mae Brooker, Olden Brooker [Roberta], Quillie Brooker [Myra], Alice B. Patterson [Larry], and Charles Brooker [Gladys]; nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
