

A Heart of Gold

A heart of gold stopped beating
Two shining eyes at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.

God knows you had to leave us
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you,
The day He took you home.

To some you will be forgotten
To other, just part of the past.
But to us who loved and lost you,
Your memory will always last.

Reflection of Life

Norman Robert Hunter III, affectionally known as “Jabby” was born on March 12, 1960 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Norman Robert Hunter Jr. and Linda Livingston Hunter.

He was educated in the public schools of Barnwell County and was a member of Blackville-Hilda High marching band. After high school, he returned to New York and lived in Queens with his aunts and other family members and then moved to Manhattan.

In the 90’s, Norman returned to Blackville, South Carolina where he worked as a musician and member of the Apostle and Profit Ministry which was run by his aunt.

Norman was a joyous, God-fearing man who loved music and being a drummer. He also loved to dress well, he loved comedy, engaging in discussions and saw himself as an instrument and warrior for the lord.

Norman transitioned on August 12, 2024 in Augusta, Georgia following a chronic illness. He was preceded in death by his father, mother, and his younger brothers.

His life will forever be cherished by his daughter, Portia Hunter, Atlanta, Georgia; his sisters: Shirley Tobin, Williston, South Carolina and Jaqueline Hunter; along with a host of other relatives and friends.
