

To My Uncle

Thank you for being there for me when I needed you most.
You were such an amazing father figure for me for the last 17 years
after Dad passed away.
I never left your side
just like you never left mine.
Until I see you again, rest Uncle.

Lovingly submitted,
Your niece, Shamara

A Heart of Gold

*A heart of gold stopped beating,
Two shining eyes at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.
God knows you had to leave us,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day He took you home.
To some you will be forgotten,
To others, just part of the past,
But to us who loved and lost you,
Your memory will always last.*

Acknowledgments

The family of Edward Coleman would like to thank everyone for their kind expressions. Your calls, flowers, cards, thoughts, text, and prayers have comforted us greatly during our bereavement.

Reflection of Life

Edward “Eddie” Coleman was born in Aiken SC to the late Edward Coleman Sr. and Almeta Barton Coleman. On September 1, 2024 after a brief illness he was called home.

Eddie's family moved to Brooklyn, New York when he was eight years old. He attended and graduated from Kings County School district in East New York.

After high school Eddie was employed at AT&T as a maintenance supervisor. He worked there for over 25 years. Eddie went on to work for Infant Formula Lab Service in Brooklyn in which he worked over 16 years until his illness.

Not one to sit around, retirement was not in Eddie's vocabulary. Even after he became ill, he vowed he was going back to work.

Eddie was a family man, who dedicated his life taking care of his nieces and nephews. He was always there for birthdays, holidays, and special occasions. Eddie will always be remembered as funny. No matter what the occasion, he would have a joke to tell.

Eddie was preceded in death by his parents, Edward Coleman Sr. and Almeta Barton Coleman; siblings: Harry Coleman and Patricia Coleman; and sister-in-law, Joyce Coleman.

He is survived by his dedicated niece, Shamara Washington; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and special friend Paul Squires.
