The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again some day.

Reflection of Life

Mrs. Cassandra Benjamin Dobbs was born on September 13, 1961 to the late Lollis Benjamin and Annetta Wallace Benjamin.

She was educated in the schools of Brooklyn, New York and was a graduate of Curtis High School class of 1979. She was employed with Pepperhill Nursing Facility in Aiken, South Carolina for many years and later she became a housekeeper for Methodist Oaks Nursing Home in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Cassandra was a strong, stern woman and she worked hard to provide for her children. She had a big heart and a wonderful personality, always smiling and brought joy to everyone lives. She enjoyed doing arts and crafts, watching movies and listening to gospel music.

She entered into eternal rest on Saturday, January 4, 2025 at her residence in Kline, South Carolina.

She was preceded in death by her father; and daughter, Tiffany Benjamin.

Cassandra leaves to cherish her fond memories, her husband, James Dobbs Jr. of the home; two sons: Kevin Benjamin and Calvin Peake both of Aiken, SC; a daughter, Kieisha Benjamin of North Augusta, SC; her mother, Annette Benjamin of Denmark, SC; a sister, Loretta Benjamin Thompson of Barnwell, SC; a brother, Eric (Michelle) Benjamin of Charlotte, NC; four grandchildren; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and other loving relatives and caring friends.
