

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never
Get well on Earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace be Thine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

The Mingo Family

Reflection of Life

Molly was born to the late John Wesley and Annie Folk Mingo on November 20, 1936 in Colleton County, South Carolina. She entered into eternal rest on February 16, 2025 at her residence.

At an early age she joined Rizer Chapel United Methodist Church. She attended the public schools of Colleton County. Later in life she moved to Brooklyn, New York to pursue a better life. She relocated back to South Carolina in 1987 to be closer to her family.

Grandma Annie would brag about Molly’s learning to cook at a very young age. She loved her family, but, adored her son, John Anthony “TT” Mingo, her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She enjoyed being surrounded by her nieces and nephews. When they were around she would always give them something to laugh about. Aunt Molly made their day by being honest.

Molly leaves to cherish her fond memories: her son, John A. Mingo of Allendale, SC; grandchildren: Ja’Quan (Brittany) Mingo of Aiken, SC, Ja’Quaven Mingo and Elvonta (Precious) Jackson both of Allendale, SC, Roshawnda Williams of Lawrenceville, GA and Jocelyn Starling of Brooklyn, NY; great grandchildren: Zariah Newton, Memphis Mingo, Logan Mingo, Harmonii Jackson, Kamiah Jackson, Elvonta Jackson, Skye Newton and Jeremiah Johnson; sister, Jettie Harden; daughter-in-law, Cynthia A. Mingo; brother-in-law, Harold Mole; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

Molly will be truly missed by those who knew and loved her.
