"Where Comfort Is Found In Memories"

A Virtuous Woman

Proverbs 31:10-31

10 Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.
12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
13 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.
15 She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.
16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.
25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.
30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.
31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

The Day God Took You Home

You never said "I'm leaving"
You never said good-bye
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still;
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one else could fill.

It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.

Lovingly submitted,
Your Husband, Richard

In Loving Memory of our Wonderful Grandmother

Of all the special gifts in life
however great or small,
to have you as our Grandmother
was the greatest gift of all.

May the winds of love blow softy
and whisper in your ear
"We love you and miss you 'Moo-Moo'
and wish that you were here"

Deep in our hearts, your life is kept to love and cherish, not forget.
No more tomorrows we can share
but yesterdays are always there.

A silent thought, a secret tear keeps your memory ever near.

In our hearts forever,
Your Loving Grandchildren

Legacy of Love

A wife, a mother, a grandmother too,
This is the legacy we have from you.

You taught us to love and how to fight,
You gave us strength; you gave us might.

A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.

You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife, not just as a mother.

For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.

So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.

Loving you to infinity, Your Children

Reflection of Life

Sylvia Dickson Broomfield, affectionately known as “Syl”, was born to the late William Dickson and Louise Thomas Dickson on August 25, 1958, in Brooklyn, New York and moved to Daytona Beach, Florida at an early age.

Sylvia was a graduate of Spruce Creek Sr. High School in Port Orange, Florida, class of 1976. She furthered her education at the University of Tampa where she earned an Associate’s Degree in Psychology. In 1982, Sylvia joined the United States Army where she served with honor as a medical specialist until 1985. Upon returning to Allendale after her military service, Sylvia went on to find employment at the Allendale County Family Practice as a medical receptionist and finally at the Savannah River Site as a health physics inspector until being medically retired.

Sylvia first met Richard Broomfield Sr. as a teenager when she was visiting cousins in Fairfax, South Carolina. Their enduring relationship culminated in their marriage on December 31, 1981. During this union, they were blessed with five children.

Sylvia departed this life on Thursday, May 1, 2025, at Doctor’s Hospital in Augusta, Georgia. She is preceded in death by a sister, Sandra Heyward and special aunt, Edna “Betty” Fennell.

Those left to cherish loving memories of Sylvia are her loving and devoted husband, Richard Broomfield Sr. of Allendale, SC; five sons: Richard (Saterria) Broomfield Jr. of Wellford, SC, Arthur (Shari) Broomfield and Terrence (Latasha) Broomfield of Graniteville, SC, Shelton Broomfield of Lexington, SC and Albert (Shelby) Broomfield of Barnwell, SC; step-daughter, Renarda Cohen of Beaufort, SC; brother, Wayne Dickson (Veronica) of Daytona Beach, Fla; one sister, Terry Ann Lewis of Fairfax, SC; special cousin/sister, Rosetta Flowers; best friend, Pamela Farris; 16 grandchildren; brother and sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
