

Memories

Memories grow
And memories fade,
But memories of Grandma
Never go away.

Her smile rests in mine,
Her hands help me sew,
Her love fills my heart,
Her spirit runs through my soul.

In memory of Grandma,
The trunk of my tree,
I live my life as her legacy.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Grandkids

The Link

They say memories are golden,
Well maybe that is true.

I never wanted memories,
I only wanted you.

A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place
No one could ever fill.

If tears could build a stairway
And heartache make a lane,
I'd walk the path to heaven
And bring you back again.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

The Family

Reflection of Life

Helen Joe Dickerson was born on April 8, 1940, to her proud parents, the late Cora Lee Williams and Willie Mondell Crosby in Bamberg, South Carolina.

She grew up in Ehrhardt, South Carolina and attended the public school of Bamberg and Ehrhardt. She was a caretaker and drove for Office of Aging for several years.

She was married to the late Bernard Dickerson for 56 years.

Mrs. Dickerson enjoyed doing crossword puzzles in her free time and she stayed in the word by reading her bible daily. She will be missed by her family and extended friends.

She was preceded in death by her two sons: John Joe and Willie James Joe; and two daughters: Cora Joe Ford and Oretha Joe.

Mother Dickerson leaves to cherish her fond memories, two daughters: Brenda Crosby Walker of the home and Bernice Joe of Lexington, SC; two sons: Jarvas Crosby and Johnny Lee Crosby both of Ehrhardt, SC; one uncle, Hamp Risher of Baxley, GA; two sisters-in-law: Rosa (Frank) Fields of Virginia and Ella Crosby of Ehrhardt, SC; a special great grandchild, Jansen Crosby; special caretakers: Dianne Dickerson and Susan Turner; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
