

*The Day God
Took You Home*

You never said "I'm leaving"
You never said good-bye
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all good times,
Shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Because I know by loving you
That I made you smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Every morning, noon and night.

Loving Memories

Reflection of Life

Joseph Tommy Loadholt was born on December 11, 1967 in Allendale, South Carolina to the late Alfred Hoover and the late Ruby Frazier Loadholt. He departed this earthly life on July 25, 2025 at Memorial Health UMC, Savannah, Georgia.

Joseph was educated in the public schools of Allendale County. He was employed with Scotsman in Fairfax, South Carolina and often worked multiple jobs to support his family. He was an avid baseball player and enjoyed staying busy by visiting friends and helping others. He loved his sons and enjoyed spending quality time with them.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories, his wife, Lillie Breeland Loadholt of Allendale, SC; three sons: Tyrell Breeland Loadholt of Charlotte, NC, Ledarius Breeland Loadholt of Columbia, SC and Joseph Loadholt Jr. of Allendale, SC; two sisters: Deaon Frazier of Springfield, GA and Janie Patterson Rouse of Allendale, SC; three brothers: Wallace Fraizer of Georgia, Marvin Frazier and Antonio Frazier both of Allendale, SC; six sisters-in-law; four brothers-in-law; four grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and caring friends.
