Welcome Home

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears
But be thankful we had so many good years.

Family & Friends

I gave you my love and you can only guess,
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

Acknowledgements

We, the family of the late Mary Wallace extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to each of you for your kindness and love extended to us during our hours of bereavement.
May God bless each of you.

The Family

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Reflection of Life

Mary Dorch Wallace was born on December 8, 1942 in Martin, South Carolina to the late AnnieRee Overstreet Dorch and Willie Boyd Dorch. She was the third of eight children.

Mary gave her life over to Christ at an early age. She joined the Mt. Hope Baptist Church and then relocated to New York where she and Charles were united in Holy Matrimony. Mary worked at Saint Claire Hospital in the record room. After retiring, she relocated back to South Carolina and rejoined Mt. Hope Baptist Church.

She is preceded in death by her parents: AnnieRee and Willie Boyd Dorch; her loving husband of 56 years Charles Wallace; her siblings: Ethel Farmer, William Dorch, Annette White, Kathalene Allen, and Annie McBride (9/9/25).

She leaves to cherish her precious life, two sons: Jerome Wallace and Darrin Wallace; one daughter-in-law, Aldenise Moore; her step children: Sandra Harley, Melvin Pinkney, Rodney Evans and Kendall Wallace; two sisters: Juanita Dorch and Rosa Thomas, four grandchildren: Allen McGriff, Shantaya Lewis, JaQuana Wallace and Macdalia Chavis; five great grandchildren: Lové McGriff, Koby McGriff, AJ Lewis, Dahlia Baker and Kalia Lewis; a special cousin, Gladys Cunningham; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Thank you for joining us to celebrate the life of our beloved Mary and for all your heart-warming messages and cards.
