

Grandma

There are no words big enough to explain how much we love you. You have been our safe place, our biggest supporter, and one of the most important person in our lives.

We never wanted this day to come when we would have to be without. The thought of you leaving us leaves a space in our hearts that can never truly be filled.

We miss your voice, your hugs, your smile, and the way you always knew how to make everything feel okay. You taught us what love looks like through your kindness, strength and care. Every memory we shared is a treasure that we will hold on to forever.

Even though we can't see you, we carry your love with us everyday. If we could have one more moment with you, We would hug you a little tight and tell you one more time how much you mean to us.

Thank you for every laugh, every lesson and every ounce of love you gave us. We love you more than words could ever express, Grandma. A part of our heart will always belong to you, and we will cherish you for the rest of our life.

Love,
Lay, Nay and Zy

To My Baby Sister

When I got that phone call from Teaka, I didn't believe it.
I called Leroy and Sam and when Sam called me back
And told me, "I think she is gone!"

When I pulled up to your apartment
they were leaving with you.

Rat, if I had one more phone call from you just to hear you say, "Bubba how are you doing?"

But I know this will never happen
And I will never hear your voice again.
But I will always keep you in my heart.

Love you Forever!

Your loving Brother,
Cooter

The Family

My Mother In Heaven

Mom, your love still lights my way,
Though you are no loner here each day.
I miss your smile, your gentle touch,
And all the ways you meant so much.

You taught me kindness, strength, and grace,
And left you love in every place.
Though tears may fall and hearts may ache,
The memories we shared can never break.

I carry your lessons deep inside,
Feeling your love as my guide.
And though we are apart
In my heart, you'll always stay.

Until we meet again someday above,
I'll hold on tight to your endless love.
Forever missed, forever dear,
Forever loved, forever near.

Your loving daughter, Teaka
