

Welcome Home

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Your loving children,
Linwood, Rosa, Issac, Lee, Louise & Dorothy

Grandmother's Touch

There's magic in a Grandmother's touch
And sunshine in her smile.
There's love in everything she does
To make our lives worthwhile.

We can find both hope and courage
Just by looking in her eyes.
Her laughter is a source of joy
Her words are warm and wise.

There is a kindness and compassion
To be found in her embrace,
And we see the light of Heaven
Shining from a Grandmother's face.

Lovingly submitted, Your Grandchildren

The Doe Family

Reflection of Life

Blanche M. Green-Doe, daughter of the late Willie Peeples and the late Mamie Milledge was born on September 9, 1930 in Allendale County, South Carolina in a small community called St. Mark. She enjoyed her childhood life in the countryside of “The Best Place”, where she grew up and began to start a family of her own.

Blanche joined the Sweet Bethel CME Church at an early age and remained a faithful member until God gave her a new home.

Blanche was married to the late Willie Green, but as years passed, they parted ways and she resided with the late Nicky Doe who fathered her children.

She was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, sister-in-law and friend. She had so much love to give to everyone she knew and some of them she didn't know. She had a huge heart.

Blanche was preceded in death by her best friend, Nicky Doe; her son, Larry Doe; grandson, Rockiem Graham; daughter-in-law, Lestine Doe; ten sisters and six brothers.

She leaves to cherish her everlasting memories, three sons: Linwood Doe (Hattie Dunbar) of Allendale, SC, Isaac L. Doe of New Ellenton, SC and Lee A. Doe of Columbia, SC; two daughters: Rosa M. Doe of Allendale, SC and Loretta Doe of Fairfax, SC; two brothers: Holman Peeples Sr. and McKinley Peeples both of Allendale, SC; two nieces reared as her own: Dorothy Felton of Jacksonville, FL and Louise Graham of Rock Hill, SC; a sister-in-law, Janie Milledge; a special person whom she loved dearly: Felecia Hartzog; a growing legacy of grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and dear friends.
