

*To Those I Love
Those Who Love Me*

When I am gone, release me, let me go,

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears

Be thankful for our beautiful years.

thank you for the love you each have shown,

But now it's time I traveled alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on,

And if you need me, call and I will come

Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear.

All my love around you soft and clear,

And then, when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and say Welcome Home"

Absent from the body; present with the Lord.

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

Obituary

Rosemary Goolsby was born on October 16, 1960, to the late George W. Fluellen and Lillie Mae Fluellen in Perry, Georgia. She spent her childhood in Warner Robins and graduated from Warner Robins High School. Following her graduation, she enlisted in the United States Army and was honorably discharged due to medical reasons. She then dedicated herself to being a caregiver for the elderly until her early retirement.

In recent years, Rosemary attended Central Georgia Technical College, graduating with honors. She earned three associate degrees in Early Childhood Education, Business, and Psychology.

Rosemary had a wide range of hobbies, but her true passions were cooking and gardening. She was known for her wonderful personality and infectious smile, leaving a lasting impression on everyone she met. She was dearly loved and brought joy to those around her.

Rosemary was preceded in death by mother Lillie Mae Fluellen and father George W. Fluellen and one brother Sidney Fluellen.

On Tuesday, May 29, 2024, Rosemary departed this life, leaving cherished memories with her loving husband, Leroy Goolsby Jr.; daughter, Jayla Goolsby; sons, Rashad Simmons and Reynard (Alicia) Simmons; stepsons, Futherall Goolsby, Anthony Goolsby, and Galindez Goolsby; stepdaughter, Tia Goolsby; four sisters, Lillie R. Fluellen-Harris (Alex), Thelma Davis, Bernice Hearn, and Marilyn Fluellen; four brothers, George Fluellen, Roosevelt Fluellen, Joe Fluellen, Joshua Fluellen; two sisters-in-law, Carolyn (Charles) Williams and Helen Woods; twelve grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and a host of other uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.
