

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little— but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me—but let me go.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the midst of our grief, we thank our many friends for your loving and generous expressions of remembrance. Your prayers and acts of comfort have sustained us and reminded us of God's mercy and grace.

May God bless and keep each of you.

Remembering Mr. George E. Davis, Sr.

Today we pause to pay tribute to Mr. George Edward Davis, Sr.; to recall our treasured moments and life's memories and to say thank you for all he has been to us. The earthly journey of George began on December 5, 1946. He was welcomed into the Davis family by his parents. He attended the primary schools of Laurens County and Bell Street High School in Clinton, SC. In his adult life, George made his home in Virginia and was employed as a welder for Rapahanic Steel Erectors.

Mr. Davis, Sr. loved his family deeply and unconditionally. He loved his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. He was also a lifelong Dallas Cowboys fan. We were blessed to learn many valuable life lessons from George during his seventy-six years.

Mr. George E. Davis, Sr. entered eternal rest on July 5, 2023, at MedStar Southern Maryland Hospital Center. He was predeceased by his parents and four siblings: Raymond, Willie James and Sam Davis and baby sister Dorothy.

The legacy of Mr. Davis, Sr. will be cherished by his devoted family; wife, Teresa; sons: George (Melody) Davis, Jr. of Kershaw, SC, Robert Ervin of Miami, FL, Perry Ervin of Knoxville, TN, Tyrone Davis of the home, Marcellous (LaTonya) Davis of Jackson, AL and George (Telnna) Bowden of Maryland; daughter, Sharon Hunter of Clinton, SC; twenty-four grandchildren; twenty-two great grandchildren; his brother, Marcellous (Debra) Davis of Clinton, SC; two sisters-in law and one brother-in-law. He was blessed with many other loving relatives and friends. The love and memory of Mr. George Edward Davis, Sr. will remain in our hearts and spirits forever.
