

A Mother's Love

*Only once in your life
Will someone so special
Walk in front of you
And prepare the way
For a better future.*

*Only once will there be a person
Who cares enough to say no
But is enthusiastic enough to say yes
Whenever possible.*

*Only once in your life
Will someone wait patiently while you make
The most important decisions of your life.*

*Only once will you know someone
Who has the courage not to back down
From a decision she's made.*

*Only once will you have the opportunity
To be loved by someone*

*Who could never love you more
Than she does every day.*

A mother's love is one of a kind.

Obituary

Wyonia McGowan was born February 13, 1941, in Laurens, South Carolina. Born to the late Walter and Georgia Fleming, she was the fourth child out of eight. She received her education from Sanders High School and was employed by Union Carbine and Bobby Jennings

In her life she had the pleasure of moving to New York, and modeling. She also enjoyed watching westerns, fishing, sewing, upholstery, bingo and traveling. She found her greatest love; however, in God and joined the New China Baptist Church. There she ushered and later became a faithful member of the Tumbling Shoals Baptist Association.

On Tuesday, July 18, 2023, Wyonia entered eternal rest; leaving to cherish her memories her husband of 53 years Sammie Lee McGowan, She had one son (Thomas Clark) that preceded her in death; four daughters; Michelle (Craig) Robertson of Raleigh, NC, Carolyn Clark of Brooklyn, New York, Georgia Bowers, and Leowner Cook both of Laurens, SC; Two step-daughters Bobbie Smith of Laurens, SC and Bernice Hawthorne of Greenville, SC, Two step sons Henry (Diane) McGowan, and Richard McGowan both of Greenville, SC. Wyonia had 19 grandchildren and a host of great grandchildren. One grandchild raised in the home Andrea Scott. 2 sisters Johnnie Brasley and Sandra (John) Bennett; 1 brother Billy (Linda) Sullivan; And a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
