The Plan of the Master Weaver

*Our lives are but fine weaving that God and we prepare.
Each life becomes a fabric planned and fashioned in His care.
We may not always see just how the weavings intertwine.
But we must trust the Master's hand and follow His design.
For He can view the pattern upon the upper side.
While we must look from underneath and trust His hand to guide...*

*Sometimes a strand of sorrow is added to His plan.
And though it's difficult for us, we still must understand
That it's He who fills the shuttle; it's He who knows what's best
So we must weave in patience and leave to Him the rest.*

*Not till the loom is silent and the shuttles cease to fly.
Shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why
The dark threads are as needed in the Weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver in the pattern He has planned.*

OBITUARY

We gather today to celebrate the life of Mr. Elbert Miller. Elbert was born on September 22, 1934 the eldest child of Clyde and Lela Workman Miller. He was the grandson of Hampton and Minnie Grant Miller and Will and Lula Golden Workman. Elbert was educated in Laurens County District 56 Schools. His family lay the foundation for his Christian values and he joined Zion Hill Baptist Church at an early age.

Elbert Miller made his home in Buffalo, New York for more than fifty years. He was employed by M Wyle Electrical Contractors LTD and Hard Manufacturing in Buffalo for many years. Later, he returned to South Carolina to help care for his mother. After returning home, Elbert attended St. Vaughnville Baptist Church in Chappells, SC under the leadership of Reverend Ray Pilgrim until his health declined.

On September 3, 2023, Elbert took his Savior's hand and entered eternal rest. He found his place of perfect peace, free from care. In addition to his parents and grandparent, Elbert was preceded in death by his loving wife, Liza Ross Miller; children: James Henry Miller and Cynthia Ross Rouse and brothers, Clyde Miller, Jr. and Jim Henry Miller.

Mr. Elbert Miller is survived by his son, John Elbert Miller (Margaret); daughter, Brenda Miller Bates (Jeffery Williams); seventeen grandchildren; two brothers: JD Miller of Cheektowaga, NY and James Miller (Georgia Ann) of Cross Hill, SC; four sisters: Catherine Tolerson (Thomas) of Fredericksburg, VA, Minnie Copeland, Lucille Allen (Jessie Frank) and Annie Mae Suber all of Cross Hill, SC; three nieces, eight nephews and many other extended family members and friends who will miss his frequent phone calls. Elbert was loved by all who knew him and will be deeply missed by anyone who was fortunate enough to have known him during his eighty-eight years.

In His Care

It's hard to see tomorrow when someone you love is gone
It's harder still to realize that your life will still go on
The Lord won't give you burdens He knows you cannot bear
He will not leave you comfortless: you'll always find Him there
We're all our Father's children on earth and up above
Your loved one is walking close to God surrounded by His love
