

SINCERE APPRECIATION

We are comforted to know that the love of our Frank Jr. will live on in the hearts of many. Thank you for your comforting words and genuine expressions of kindness.

THE FAMILY

DAD

A dad's love is special
A gift beyond compare
You only know the meaning
When he is no longer there.

A special time
A special face
A special dad
I can't replace
With an aching heart
I whisper low
I miss you dad
And love you so

OBITUARY

Today we pause to pay tribute to Mr. Frank Copeland, Jr., to recall our treasured moments and memories and to say thank you for all he has been to each of us. Frank began this earthly journey on March 13, 1952. He was born and raised in Laurens County by his loving parents, Mr. Frank Copeland, Sr. and Mrs. Ella Copeland. He attended Laurens County District 56 Schools and was a member of New Bethel AME Church in Clinton, SC

Mr. Copeland, Jr. loved his family deeply and unconditionally. His life was a reflection of a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, nephew, uncle and friend. He was devoted to the care and well being of his devoted wife, children and grandchildren. Providing for his family was Frank's priority. He worked many years in construction for North Lake Construction.

On October 3, 2023, Frank Copeland, Jr. closed his eyes on earth and awoke in his Heavenly home with Jesus. He kept his promise to see his mother and father again on the other side as well as his sister Katie M. Copeland and brother, James E. Copeland, Sr.

Those left to continue his legacy and cherish the memory of Mr. Frank Copeland, Jr. include his loving wife, Betty R. Copeland; his daughter, Sharon (Jeff) Stevenson; his bonus daughters: Cynthia, Shannon and Erica Kelley; his grandchildren: Travius Copeland and Jalen Shands; a great grandson, Sevyn Copeland; his siblings: Ella Copeland Oyenyin, John K. Copeland and Tommy G. Copeland. Frank was also loved dearly by his many nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends. He touched many lives in his seventy-one years and sprinkled encouragement and love in many hearts.

I miss you when something really good happens, because you're the one I want to share it with. I miss you when something is troubling me, because you're the one who understands me so well. I miss you when I laugh and cry, because you're the one who makes my laughter grow, and my tears disappear. I miss you all the time, but I miss you most when I lay awake at night, and think of all the wonderful times we spent with each other, for those were some of the best and most memorable time of my life. I just miss you.

Frank Copeland, Jr.
