

Family Memories

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

“I promise no tomorrow but today will always last
And since each day's the same here there's no longing for the past.
So when tomorrow starts without me don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart.”

With Sincere Gratitude

Words of thanks seem so inadequate for all of the kindness that has been bestowed upon our family. We thank you for the encouraging visits, the comforting calls, the lovely cards, the beautiful floral arrangements, and the sincere words of solace.

A Message From Heaven

Perhaps you aren't ready yet to have to say good-bye...

Perhaps you've thought of things you've wished you said...

Well so have I

For one thing,

I'd have told you not to worry about me...

I'm with the Lord in Heaven now—

You knew that's where I'd be.

I'm sorry thar you're feeling sad,

For I am so happy now...

I've asked the Lord to ease the hurt and comfort you somehow.

It's hard at the beginning, but I know you'll make it through.

I hope it helps to know that I'll be waiting here for you.

FIRST BREATH

Forever In Our Hearts

Our Beloved, Tobiusa

Our lives have been enriched simply by the presence of Tobiusa Ishelee Haquan Brown. Tobiusa was born on December 25, 1998 in Laurens County Hospital to loving and generous parents, Tabitha Butler and Hansel Brown.

Tobiusa, or Pan or Bubba as he was known by family and friends, was a member of Wateree Baptist Church in Mountville, SC. He was a 1998 graduate of the Life-long Learning Center in Laurens, SC. Writing was Tobiusa's passion. He authored a book entitled Maxwell Heist as well as a play. Our precious son made an instant impact on everyone he met. He was a very special soul who face many challenges, worked hard to address his weaknesses and grow his strengths. He loved his family and friends with fierce loyalty. Tobiusa was a sweet, compassionate young man who was honest with strong moral principals.

On Tuesday, February 13, 2024 Tobiusa became absent from his body to be present with the Lord. In addition to his loving parents he will be deeply missed by his grandmothers, Carolyn Butler and Sherry Brown of Laurens, SC; his grandfather, James Donald Brown of Gray Court, SC; his uncle, Brad Allan Brown; aunts, Senta Butler, Tinisha Burler-Long (Darrell) both of Laurens, SC and Shay Butler of Fountain Inn, SC; a special great aunt, Linda Golden of Laurens, SC. He will live on in the hearts of many loving cousins, other family members and friends. Tobiusa will remain the brightest light in our lives until we meet again.

In Loving Memory

of a Special Son

Cherished memories of a Son whose love was strong and true, to lose someone so precious brings a pain you can't undo

You were the treasure in our hearts

You were loved in every way

Now you're gone, you're truly missed each and every day...

...You always brought the blue skies and filled our world with joy, spreading happiness and laughter
since you were a little boy

Son, life will never be the same
Now that you're no longer here, but our love for you is solid and will last forever and ever
