

Angels Are Mothers

"There are Angels God puts on this Earth,
Who care for us and guide us.
You can feel their love and gentleness
as they walk through life beside us.

They do great things for us every day
they whisper in our ears,
they even hold us in their hearts
when we are filled with all our fears.

They are always there to give a hug
and try to make us smile.
They treat us with respect and love,
they treat us like their child.

God blessed me with an Angel,
I'm proud to call my own.
She's been with me throughout my life, been with me as I've grown.

She's guided me the best she can,
she's taught me like no other,
and I'm thankful I'm the lucky one who got to call her...Mother."

*I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith..*

~ THE FAMILY~

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories
that I leave behind
When life is done.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF Ms. Lillie Pearl Leake

LET YOUR TEARS FALL FOR THE HAPPINESS AND JOY WE KNEW, AND FOR THE SPECIAL LOVE WE SHARED FOR LOVE CAN NEVER DIE.

Ms. Lillie Pearl Leake lived a beautiful life filled with an abundance of love, laughter and light. With a determined spirit and a made up mind she overcame many obstacles with boldness and bravery. On Wednesday, July 31, 2024, Ms. Lillie Pearl Leake went home to rest in the arms of her loving Savior at the Medical University of South Carolina Medical Center in Charleston, SC. The journey was long and hard; but she was strong, kept the faith and leaned on the Word of God. Lillie Pearl the daughter of Mr. Henry Wilson, Mr. Willie James Hill (stepfather) and Mrs. Lillie K. Hill was born on September 27, 1948 in Cross Hill, SC.

Ms. Leake was a retired employee of Clinton Mill in Clinton, SC. She was a faithful member of St. Vaughnville Baptist Church in Chappells, SC where she served and ministered the gospel for many years. She also served and ministered the gospel at Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in Cross Hill, SC. Lillie Pearl was a woman of God who allowed her faith to carry her and give her strength day by day without giving up. She had a beautiful soul, found joy in helping everyone and loved helping ...even when she was tired and didn't have much to give. While our hearts mourn the loss, we take comfort in knowing that she is no longer in pain. We thank the Lord for loaning her to us for seventy-five years.

We also take solace in knowing "that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". Waiting on the other side with open arms were her parents Henry Wilson and Willie James and Lillie K. Hill; as well as three brothers: James, Robert and Jake Hill.

Lillie Pearl left a legacy of love, laughter and light to guide and comfort those she loved. She will live on in the loving memories of her only child, Rori Leake; her three grandchildren: Keandra Leake, Kalim and Khalid Taylor; seven great grandchildren (four of whom she raised as her own): Jaylin Sullivan, Janiya Dendy, Jamari and Jakayla Black, Ayslah, A'ysia and Kensli Taylor; three godchildren: Kijana Davis, Tabitha (Jason) Speaks and Lemorris Boyd; two sister: Carol Coleman and Darlene Wilson; six brothers: Eddie (Dorothy) Hill, Henry Wilson, John Wilson, Alfonzo (Gwen) Wilson, Michael (Laverne) Bullock, Marshall (Dorsel) Bullock; two special aunts: Helen Grayden and Dorothy (Tommy) Richard; a special uncle, Sammy Leake, and many other loving relatives and friends. Today we celebrate the life of Ms. Lillie Pearl Leake, who has gone on before us. She leaves footprints of faith, kindness, love, compassion, inspiration and joy on the hearts of family and friends. Her love is forever our guide.
