*The Day God
Took You Home*

You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Goodbye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.
Love, Kathy

Abituary

Mr. James Binkie Turner, of Charlottes Road, Clinton South Carolina, was born to the late James Wendell and Clara Mae Turner on September 12, 1953. He and his siblings were raised and educated in Laurens County. They all were introduced to the Lord at Hebron Baptist Church in Clinton, South Carolina.

Binkie attended Bell Street High School and later graduated in Washington DC. He made his career at Timken; where he retired after 28 years. Unable to stay seated for long; you could find him at Whitten Center (retired at age 62) or being of service for the Piedmont Agency as one of their trusted drivers. One of his greatest joys was helping others.

At 71; James Binkie Turner was summoned to join his Heavenly Father. On November 16, 2024, he was once again reunited with his parents; brothers and sister at the Pearly Gates.

Though his time seemed too short; his infectious smile and laughter will live on through those he loved and that loved him: his best friend and wife for over twenty years Kathy Mae Turner of the home; his children: James (Tyesha) Binkie Turner, Jr., of Simpsonville, South Carolina, Faye (Johnnie) Ashmore of Fountain Inn South Carolina, Steven (Tamica) Barr and Timothy (Tanya) Barr both of Clinton, South Carolina; sisters: Flossie Turner Giles of Washington, DC, Corine “Ren” Thomas of Richmond, VA, Sadie (Earl) Lewis of Washington DC; his sisters in law: Fannie Lou Bryson of Laurens and Mary Davis of Greenville; one aunt Racheal Stewart of Washington DC; and his 11 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren who gave such meaning to his life. There are many other loving relatives and friends who filled his years with so much love and joy.
