MY DEAREST CLARA

The memories of my association with you will linger with me eternally and shall always be regarded with tender love and affection.

With love, Jerry

THE BEAUTIFUL CLARA

THE BEAUTIFUL FAMILY

ODE TO GRANDMOTHER

Where can I find love that never changes
Smiles that are true and always just the same,
Caring not how the fierce tempest rages,
Willing ever to shield my honored name?

This I find at home, only with Grandmother,
Who cares for me with patient tenderness;
She from every human pain would rather
Save me, and drink the dregs of bitterness.

If on life's way I happen to flounder,
My true thoughts should be of Grandmother dear,
She is the rock that ne'er rifts asunder,
The cry of her grandchild, be it far or near.

This is love wonderful beyond compare;
It is God's choicest gift to mortal man;
You, who know Grandmother, in this thought must share,
For, she, of all, is Angel of your Clan.

My Grandmother is black, loveliest of all;
Yes, she is as pure as the new made morn;
Her song of glee is a clear rhythmic call
To these arms of love to which I was born.

I shall never forget you, sweet Grandmother,
Where'er in life I may happen to roam;
Thou shalt always be the Fairy Charmer
To turn my dearest thoughts to things at home.
