Celebrating Life of Mrs. Nancy McCarrell

Nancy McCarrell was born on October 16, 1954, in Newberry, South Carolina, to the late Amos Payne and Corrine Leak. From an early age, she was known for her vibrant spirit, kind heart, and natural ability to bring joy wherever she went.

Her life was a reflection of love, faith, and service. A proud graduate of Newberry High School, Nancy went on to build a remarkable 35-year career as a weaver trainer at Clinton Mill. When the mill closed, her caring nature led her to the field of caregiving, a role that perfectly matched her compassionate heart. In every position she held, Nancy's dedication, patience, and devotion to others left a lasting mark on everyone she encountered.

Beyond her professional life, Nancy found deep joy in the simple but meaningful things such as cooking, ministering, and spending quality time with her loved ones. Whether she was preparing a home-cooked meal, nurturing children, or sharing God's word, Nancy did everything with grace, purpose, and love.

Her greatest joy, however, was her family. She was the heartbeat of every gathering, always offering laughter, encouragement, and unconditional love. Nancy's devotion to her husband, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren was endless, and she took immense pride in being a loyal daughter, sister, wife, and friend.

Nancy's light will forever shine in the hearts of those she touched. She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Ricky McCarrell; her loving daughter, Beverly Payne, her sons, Rodney Bernard Payne (Yvette) and Christopher Todd Payne; two sisters Sarah Curenton (Ed), Lola Jacks; 13 grandchildren and great-grandchildren; along with a host of beloved aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and dear friends.

Her legacy of faith, love, and kindness will continue to live on through all who were blessed to be loved by her.

FOREVER IN OUR Hearts

LOVED BY YOU

In Loving Memory of Our Beloved Nana

From the moment you entered a room,
Warmth followed right behind.
A gentle laugh, a caring heart,
A spirit so rare to find.

You walked with grace and kindness,
Your faith a shining guide,
A real servant through and through,
With God always by your side.

You sang your songs of worship,
Each note a prayer so true,
And even when the music stopped,
God's melody played through you.

You loved the joy of many things—
A chance to shop always made you smile,
A new dress, a new purse,
My girl was always in style.

Though tears may fall and hearts may ache,
We'll keep your memory near,
For heaven gained an angel now,
Your peace is crystal clear.

You're home with those who've gone before,
With that eternal glory view,
And though the world feels dim today...
We're better for being LOVED BY YOU!

WE LOVE YOU, NANA

A LIFE WELL LIVED
A LEGACY Remembered
