Good Night

I see a light shining far, far away
And I have decided to follow that light today.
I've done all the work I plan to do
So, I must say goodnight to you.
The angels are waiting to show me the way home;
God spared this old life for so very long.
I must go with them; they will not wait.
The Lord is waiting to greet me at the pearly gates
Good night my family, I must lie down and rest.
This soul of mine has done its best.
There's no reason to be so sad – I am only asleep;
I laid down this morning – this time for keeps.

Love you Grandma, Trez

Mrs. Beatrice Little-Wesley

MRS. BEATRICE LITTLE-WESLEY lived her life with her whole heart. She was a sweet, gentle, loving, and kind soul who always remained selfless. She was always known by family and countless others as a giving person to everyone she came in contact with. She would always welcome you into her home with her mild manner and down-home southern food. You would always leave there full from food and love. She was truly one of a kind and had a captivating spirit that was unforgettable, lasting a lifetime.

On November 6, 1933, Beatrice Little-Wesley was born in Laurens County, South Carolina, to the late Costell Little, Sr., and Janie Wilson Little. She graduated from Bell Street High School in 1953. She went on to Morris College in Sumter, South Carolina.

Beatrice, affectionately known by family and friends as “Bea,” was employed at Whitten Center in Clinton, South Carolina, and retired after 25 years of service. She was also a VFW Life Member 5932 and Disabled Veterans Life Member, Chapter 52. One of her greatest joys in life was working, cooking, and caring for her brother as a Domestic Worker for many years which she did until health started to decline.

She was preceded in death by her son, Jason P. Little; and husband, Johnnie L. Wesley.

On Monday, November 17, 2025, at age 92, God whispered softly in the ear of our beloved Beatrice and said, “Welcome Home, Thy Good and Faithful Servant.”

She leaves to cherish her fond memories: her two loving sons, Johnnie B. (Akia Cofield) Wesley of Clinton, SC, and Darren (Priscilla Speaks) Wesley of Clinton, SC; one sister, Christine (Pierce) Crank of Goldsboro, NC; one brother, Costell Little, Jr., of Clinton, SC; grandchildren, Javarious “Trez” (Brianna) Wesley of Laurens, SC, Shardae Wesley of Clinton SC, Darius Anderson of Laurens, SC, Dario Anderson of Laurens, SC, Amber Wesley of Laurens, SC, Aaron Pinson of Clinton, SC, Kiara Wesley (reared in the home), Jada Pearl Wesley of Columbus, OH, and Jahias Wesley of Clinton, SC; twelve great-grandchildren; special niece, Mrs. Dana Little-Walker; caregiver, Ms. Akia Cofield; caregiver, Minister Anita Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
