

Letter To Our Beloved Brother

Keynolds, We thank God for allowing you to be our brother and allowing us to be your sisters. We couldn't have been born into a better family. Although your passing has left a burning hole in our hearts that will never heal, we will always love and never forget you big brother. Now you have gone to be with the rest of our family in heaven. One day we will all be together again. Until then look over us and guide us. The Golden Sisters Dot, Theopha and Jo

To My Daddy and My Best Friend Keyn

From the moment God chose you to be my father, He placed a covering over my life that has carried me through every joy, every trial, and every blessing I've ever known. You were Heaven's gift to me—a steady hand, a gentle soul, and a reflection of God's love here on earth. You were my best friend, my counselor, my protector, and my comfort. You showed me what faith looks like in real life. You taught me to pray, to trust God even when the path wasn't clear, and to stand in strength even when my heart was trembling. Through you, I learned the goodness of God's grace and the power of His love. I thank God for every moment we shared. For the laughter that filled our days, for the wisdom you poured into me, for the quiet conversations that healed me, and for the way you always found a way to speak life into my spirit. You lived with purpose, you loved with generosity, and you walked with God every step of the way. Keyn, even though you've stepped into eternity, I feel your presence with me. I know your spirit is resting in the arms of the Lord—whole, renewed, and surrounded by His glory. And I know you're watching over me now from a place of perfect peace. I will carry your legacy of faith. I will cling to the lessons you taught me. And I will honor you by living a life that reflects the love, strength, and wisdom you instilled in me. Thank you for being my daddy. Thank you for being my best friend. Thank you for loving me with a God-filled heart that continues to guide me even now. I love you forever, Daddy. And I know we will meet again, in God's perfect time. Robb

Jimmy Golden

Mr. Jimmy Reynolds Golden Sr. was born April 20, 1947 in Laurens, SC to the late Gladys Wilson Golden and Willie "Gat" Golden. He is survived by his wife, Julia A. Golden; his daughter Rosalyn (Willie) Golden Johnson, two sons, Jimmy R (Dedra) Golden Jr, William (Lisa) Jeffery Golden; three sisters, Willie Jo Golden, Dorothy Golden, and Theopha Young; two sister in laws, Audreice (Sillas) Williams, Barbara (Michael) Saunders and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his siblings William, Betty, and Jerry Golden. Jimmy passed peacefully from this life on Thursday, November 27, 2025, after a gradual decline in health. He was surrounded and supported by his loving family during the last days of his life.

He carried the responsibility of leader ship from a young age but as life continued, he retired from L.C.D.S.N.B after many years of service. He also played a role in the community as a baseball softball coach. Throughout his life, he continued to embody the virtues of guidance, loyalty, and compassion—qualities that made him not only a beloved brother, but a cherished father, grandfather, and great grandfather.

He leaves behind a legacy as rich as the generations who survive him: 12 grandchildren and 24 great grandchildren, 8 great great grandchildren each of whom carries a piece of his spirit forward. His family was his proudest accomplishment, and the stories, lessons, and love he shared will continue to shape their lives for years to come.

Those who knew him will remember his quiet strength, his gentle humor, and the way he made everyone feel welcome and valued. He had a gift for seeing people clearly and loving them wholly.

As we say goodbye, we honor a life well lived and a man deeply loved.

Though he is no longer with us in body, his presence lives on in the memories we hold and the generations he helped shape. His legacy is one of love, endurance, and family—a legacy we will forever cherish.

May he rest in peace.
