Together Again
A reunion occurred in Heaven this week
Of the sweetest and most joyful kind
As Dad's spirit moved beyond this Earth,
Released from his mortal life.
And what a reunion it must have been!
A joy beyond our conceiving,
When Dad met Mom in Heaven again,
Ending months of dignified grieving.
And we are certain Dad is still holding Mom's hand
While she cherishes each moment by his side,
And they're experiencing the joy of being together again,
Catching up on the months they were denied.
We are confident they are also looking over us,
Hoping this happiness will lessen our pain
As we contemplate the joy that they finally feel
Now that they are together again.
And though we'll miss them terribly
And will long for them with deepest grief,
We are reminded that love is more powerful than death
And this knowledge gives us comfort and peace.
We can still feel their love surround us,
Giving us a desire to continue on,
To try our best to live our lives well
In the ways they would have done.
We know this isn't the only reunion;
Someday we'll be called back to be with them.
