

FOR GRANDMA, WITH LOVE

Your hands have held a hundred things - from teacups, books, to butterfly wings. But my favorite place they've ever been was wrapped around my world within. Your stories float like lullabies, a softer world behind your eyes. You stitched your love through every seam, in Sunday talks and sweet daydreams. You taught me strength in quiet ways, in weathered smiles and patient days. You showed me grace when I would fall, and love that asks for nothing at all. The older I get, the more I see the roots you grew inside of me. Not just in name or family tree, but in the woman I came to be. So here's to you, my heart, my guide, with all the love I hold inside. No matter where life pulls me to, a part of me is stitched to you.

~Love Always Kiria & Briauna

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express our deepest gratitude for the love and support shown during this difficult time. Your kind words, prayers, and presence have been a great comfort to us. We are truly blessed to have such wonderful family and friends by our side. Special thanks to Alex Boyd & Willie Mae Fortson. May God bless you all.

REVEREND RICHARD AIKEN, PRESIDERS

Helen Virginia Pyles Bobo was born to the late Mr. Samuel Pyles and Mrs. Leola Pyles in Clinton, South Carolina on March 22, 1932. The Lord quietly called her to rest on Sunday, February 01, 2026, after 93 blessed years. Helen was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Nathaniel Bobo, brothers John Pyles, Jimmy Pyles, and sister Ella Francis Miller.

Helen was an ambitious and hardworking woman who was a licensed cosmetologist. She found joy in sewing and baking, and had a deep love for fashion and modeling. After retiring from Asten Johnson, she continued serving her community as a Grandparent at M.S. Bailey and Clinton Elementary Schools. Above all, she cherished her family and loved them dearly.

Gone but never forgotten, Helen leaves to cherish in loving memory, her loving son Larry G. Bobo, a daughter in love, Rosia Lee Bobo. Grandson Brian Bobo & grand daughter, Lanita Miller. Her devoted great grand daughters Kiria Bobo & Briauna Bobo. Great grand sons, Kelvin Rice, Terijae Bobo and Devontae Bobo. One great great grand daughter, Dzhiah Bobo. Her beloved sisters, Rosa Lee Vance, Jesse (Eugene) Jackson, Sammie Young, Arzelia Boyd and Sylvia Conway. Her loving brother, Furman (Ruth) Pyles. Helen leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends, all of whom were touched by her love and kindness.

As we remember Helen, we celebrate a life well-lived—a life dedicated to faith, family, and service. May her memory be a blessing to all who knew her.
