Your loss came so unexpectedly. I thought many more years we would have to share. But God had another plan and at times the loss and grief are things I just can't bear. We created the most wonderful son and he looks and acts just like you. I never thought that I'd have to raise him and care for him not always being reassured by you of the right things to do. I tell him that you are in heaven and when you reunite you can catch up on all the things that have been.

Hours, days, months, and years pass by but the love of a father and a son never runs dry. I miss you as one of my best friends, but I can't change anything that has happened or what has been. Our son is the legacy that you leave for all to see. And I pray that God has wrapped his loving arms around you, allowing you the chance to be all that you can be. I love you, and I miss you.

Psalm 133

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.'

Psalm 123

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

Psalms 24: 7-10

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

Psalm 1: 3

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
