

Home Going

As I would always say, don't worry about me I knew the time would come one day for me to go home
Be strong, I'm at peace now on my way to a happy home
I'm not alone, remember the good and happy memories and the time we shared together on this earth
Until we meet again

Obituary

Mr. John Lewis Vickers III better known to family and friends as "Uncle John L and Train," of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, passed away on Friday, January 19, 2024, in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

John was born on February 23, 1961, in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida to Willie, Sr., and Bernice Vickers. He grew up with his twin brother and sister Willie and Willette and his sister Bessie. He was very kind, loving, devoted to his family and had a passion for his nieces and nephews. He was always joking around and would especially keep us laughing; he loved sports and being around family.

Later in life he met Joann, his wife; and to their union they had a son, John L. Vickers, Jr. He was preceded in his passing by his parents Willie and Bernice Vickers, brother Willie Vickers, Jr., and sister Bessie Vickers. John is survived by his wife Joann, son John, Jr. sister, Willette Vickers, and sister-in-law Veola Vickers; grandchildren De'Undre Vickers, Ezekiel Vickers, Yaria Vickers and John Vickers, III. Great-grandchildren; De'Undre Vickers, Jr., and Katrina Vickers. Nieces, Tangela (Deon), Lisa, Shanita(Donovan),Sherdina, Sandra, Kimberly, Quatevia; Great-Nieces, Deondra, Jellisa, Jaliyah, Ryleigh; Nephews, Paulonzeo, Curtis; Great-Nephews, Jacob, Darious, Paulonzeo, Jr. and a host of family and friends.
