A Life of Legacy

Pearly Rankin-Smith transitioned on February 24, 2024 in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida. She was born on February 14, 1953 in Monroeville, Alabama to the late John and Mazie Betts. Pearly leaves behind a legacy of love and devotion to her family and community.

Pearly was a dedicated educator, having earned a Bachelor's degree in education from Florida Atlantic University. She worked for the School District of Palm Beach County until her retirement in 2020. Beyond her professional career, Pearly also served as a compassionate caregiver in Palm Beach.

A faithful member of Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church, Pearly actively participated in the Nursing Guild and served as a supervisor at the former Mount Olive Child Care Center.

Pearly is preceded in death by her eldest daughter, Petrina Rankin. She will be dearly missed by her husband, Wellington Smith, her daughters Shelbie Rankin (Elvis Brice), Tanyia Rankin (Asa), and Sherry Ward. Pearly is also survived by her siblings Katherine Betts, Solomon Betts (Annie), Unistine Thompson, Denise Hands (Jiles), General Betts (Malinda), Steve Betts, and Angela Lee (Richard). Additionally, she leaves behind her grandchildren: Tashad Rankin Sr., Larvell Orcene, Brandon Telfort, Travin Collier, Jakhi Williamson, Makhi Williamson, Roddarius Winn, Tanajah Winn, and Richard Dunmore. Great-Grandchildren: Tashad Rankin Jr., Kaiden Rankin, Ari'yanna Collier, Chloe Newton, and Cali Newton. God Children: Gregory Henderson II, and Edetta Jackson. Special Nephew: Kenneth Poitier. Followed by a host of nieces and nephews.
