

"A Poem"

By: Beulah Peat

"In loving memory of our dear beloved Kenneth Smith."

In spring, we'll wait for Roses Red.

When Fades the Lilac Blue,

In Early autumn, when brown leaves fall,
we'll catch a glimpse of you.

We'll want to know each step you take,
that we may walk the same, For some day, down that lonely road, you'll hear us call your name.

We'll hear your voice, we'll see your smile.

Though blindly we may grope, the memory of your dear Beloveth, will carry you all on with strength, peace, and hope.

Obituary

On March 3, 1948 Kenneth Jerome Smith was born to Willie Lee Smith and Mary Susie Smith in Waynesburg, Georgia. He grew up in Florida where he resided in West Palm Beach until his transition of life. Kenneth Smith was preceded in death by his mother Mary.

About the age of 4, Kenneth relocated to West Palm Beach, Florida. He received his educational training in Palm Beach County where he attended Roosevelt High School. While Kenneth worked many careers, he was a self-employed master of Construction where he specialized in paint, plaster, and stucco. He worked extensively hard to provide for his family. He retired from the profession in 2024. Kenneth Sr. and Kenneth Jr. were both lovers of the sea and avid fisherman. Kenneth enjoyed fishing with many of his fishing buddies.

Kenneth had a special love for all people. He was of service to everyone he met and extended a helping hand whenever needed. This generosity and compassion towards others was the mark he left in this world. He enjoyed life by spreading the word of God, bringing laughter, and joy through dance and music. He earned the title "Dancing Red" for his sly dance moves. He loved spending time with his children, grandchildren, friends, and extended family members.

Kenneth is survived by his son Kenneth Smith Jr., daughter Tawana Smith, and step-daughter Tasha Johnson, and his eldest brother Franklin Smith(Maryland), granddaughters Kennedy Smith, Kianza Black, Kaliyah Black, Kerriana Black, Krystal Black, Kailee Black, Kimora Black, cousins and other relatives located in West Palm Beach and Jacksonville Florida, two very close friends Pete and Pieter Cleveland and many more who made a significant impact in Kenneth's life. Additionally, a special friend Dorah March-Adams, and a host of long time friends throughout Miami and South Florida.
