

Today, we gather to honor and remember a beautiful soul a devoted mother, a loving grandmother, and a true light in our lives. Her kindness, strength, and gentle spirit touched all who knew her. Through our hearts are heavy, we find comfort in the precious memories she leaves behind, and the lessons of love and resilience she so gracefully taught us."

Thank you, Manman, Grandma, for the love you gave so freely, the lessons you taught with patience, and the warmth you brought into every room. Your legacy lives on in each of us, and we are forever grateful." "On behalf of our family, I want to sincerely thank each and every one of you for being here today and for the love, prayers, and support you have shown during this difficult time. Your presence, kind words, and shared memories have brought us comfort and strength as we honor and remember our beloved (Grandma Marie Altida Charlot). We are deeply grateful for your kindness and for standing with us in our sorrow."

(1948 - 2025)

Biography

Marie Altida Charlot was born on May 15, 1948, in Jean-Rabel, Haiti, the first child of Lethicia Alphonse-Philor and Julien William.

Raised with her Aunty Hidalbert in a home full of life and love. Marie has 11 sisters and 11 brothers, she learned early the strength of family and the power of care. She attended the Marie Reine des Coeurs nun school and carried a deep sense of grace and service throughout her life.

A gifted cook and beloved baker, Marie was known for her delicious bread and the warmth of her kitchen. But her greatest joy came from being a mother to 12 children, five of whom she gave birth to and seven she lovingly adopted. She poured her heart into raising them with patience, strength, and unconditional love.

Marie extended her love and care to her community. Her kindness, generosity, and willingness to help those in need earned her iconic status.

Everyone knew and respected her as a strong, compassionate woman. Marie leaves behind a legacy of devotion, kindness, and resilience. Her 20 grandchildren and a wide community of family and friends continue to cherish her memory.

Her passing on April 15, 2025, has left a deep sadness in all who knew her. She was not only the first child of her parents but the heart of many and her love will echo in our lives forever.
