

Adrian Lemoine Cargill

On April 20, 1970, Adrian Lemoine Cargill was blessed to Marsha Elaine Monroe (deceased). A gift from God at an early age, Adrian was adopted by his maternal grandmother Edwina and her husband Oliver Cargill (both deceased).

Adrian attended Nova Elementary, Middle, and High school where he built friendships and cherished memories. He was a very hard worker. Adrian worked at Double Eagle Distributing as a warehouse tech. He later worked as a landscaper's assistant and a construction laborer.

Adrian had a deep appreciation for nostalgic music and films. He found joy in reminiscing about the past and sharing laughter with his loved ones. His vibrant personality and warm spirit made every family gathering brighter. Adrian's presence was always accompanied by humor. God called Adrian home on August 30, 2025.
