SKINNY LEG

Skinny, I don't even know where to start, 'cause you were more than my uncle—you were my heart. You were the life of the family, the light in every dark day.

If I was feeling down, I knew exactly where to go Skinny's house, where the door stayed open and the laughs stayed loud. A whole vibe.

One of the girls, but still the man who walked his own way and dared anybody to say something. You lived loud, loved louder.

You loved when I did your hair, your lashes,

"In your skinny voice, you always called me your 'favoritive.'" Skintrel brought me my first pair of thongs—my mother, Gloria Walker, was not happy about it, but that was just Skintrel. He never missed a birthday without getting me something. He called me every day at all hours—crying, singing, being messy, and always full of love.

Skintrel had been preparing me for years for this day; he had it all planned out. I am going to miss your calls, hugs, and kisses. I will miss you doing shows, dancing, and singing, but most of all, I will miss your presence. You always knew exactly what to do or say to make me smile.

I will forever cherish our memories and good times. Until we meet again, I hope you are dancing in the sky.

Lovingly, Your favorite niece, April Knight

💜 DIVA — For My Brother, Skinny 💜

People used to say we looked alike, said we were twins, and I'd tell them real quick I'm the real one. Skinny just followed my lead. (Let's clear that up right now.)

But jokes aside, that was my brother. My heart. My DIVA.

D is for the dance he gave you no practice, no warning, just music in his soul and confidence in every step.

I is for Idol because Skinny was admired, looked up to, and loved by so many. He didn't try to be one he just was.

V is for victory because no matter what life threw his way, Skinny stayed standing, stayed shining, and stayed true to himself.

A is for the act he showed you not fake, not forced, but real, bold, and unforgettable. What you saw is what you got, and what you got was everything.

Now I'm closing my door, but not my memories. Not my love. Not my pride.

Rest easy, my brother, my DIVA. Take your bow. The show may be over, but the legend lives on and yes...

I'm still the real one. Your lovely sister Glo
