

Obituary

Marie Jose Doucet was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend whose life reflected strength, faith, and devotion to family. She was born to Carmene Doucet and Dorancy Doucet, who laid the foundation for the values she carried throughout her life.

She was one of seven siblings, sharing a lifelong bond with Gerard, Edith, Roger, Ernst, Polette, and Carlo Onorat Doucet. Marie Jose valued education and attended school in Guatemala and later at Lycée de Pétion-Ville. Her passion for caring for others led her to a career as a cosmetologist, where she took pride in helping people feel confident and beautiful.

In 2014, following the devastating earthquake in Haiti, Marie Jose made the courageous decision to leave her homeland in search of a better life for herself and her family. Her journey was marked by perseverance, sacrifice, and hope.

She was a devoted mother to four children-Ketty Dal, Myrlene Dal, Sophia Dal, and Ralph Jeudy-and lovingly raised Roody Daniel Doucet as her own. She was also blessed with eight grandchildren-Kimberly Doucet, Melissa Dorce, Alissa Dorce, Carla Charles, Pricilla Pierre, Cristopher, Prince Victor, and Victoria Victor-and one great-grandchild, all of whom brought her immense joy.

Marie Jose was a cherished aunt to Marie Antoinette Doucet, Virginia Bourdeau, Frantz Doucet, Sabrina Boue, Garry Doucet, Jean Richard Doucet, Caril Jeudy, and Sofarrah Doucet, offering love, guidance, and unwavering support.

She will be remembered for her strength, generosity, and deep love for family. Her legacy lives on through the many lives she touched and the generations she nurtured.
