

A LETTER TO MY DAD

You may have thought I didn't see,
Or that I hadn't heard,
Life lessons that you taught to me,
But I got every word.
Perhaps you thought I missed it all,
And that we'd grow apart,
But Dad, I picked up everything,
It's written in my heart.
Without you, Dad, I wouldn't be
The person I am today;
You built a strong foundation
No one can take away.
I've grown up with your values,
And I'm very glad I did;
So here's to you, dear father,
From your forever grateful kid.

HIS STORY

"To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord"

On January 22 the Lord called home a vibrant soul, Kurt Bernard Pughsley. Known to all who loved him as "Apostle", Kurt was a man of deep authenticity, and of great joy to everyone he came in contact with. The Lord anointed and appointed him to change the lives of anyone he came in contact with for the better.

Born on December 7th 1963 to Grady Pughsley and Pearlie Scott-Pughsley, Kurt's roots ran deep in Broward County. He was also a product of Dillard High School and later furthered his education in Culinary School to become a Chef. Many didn't know he was a jack of all trades, the true definition of a business man by doing Real Estate, Plumbing, Owning a Restaurant, Clothing Store and many more business ventures. He loved spending time with family and friends by cooking, laughing at old stories, telling jokes, or just encouraging people to be the best version of themselves.

Kurt leaves behind his wife Jackie Pughsley, His son Jeremy Mccrea, His Spiritual daughter and Spiritual son Shakira Mcfadden and Elijah Harris, Spiritual daughter Carmilia Pompey, His God children Tenia and Aiden, His brothers Earl Scott, Ronald Pughsley, Willie Pughsley also (deceased brothers Donald Pughsley, Alan Scott, Bobby Lee Pughsley, Norman Pughsley and Willie James Freeman), His Sisters Florida Mae Pughsley, (deceased sisters Sandra Pughsley and Gracie Brown), also his Sister In Law Teresa Scott, Rhonda Brooks, Maxine Pughsley, Latrice Pughsley, Dannette Scott and many uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, and spiritual children.

The Family finds comfort in knowing that Kurt is now at peace and resting in the Lord's care. His spirit, his laughter, and the love he shared with others will forever remain in the hearts of everyone he knew.
