

Personal Tribute

Phaniya was known for her beautiful spirit and the quit strength she carried. Her presence brought comfort to those around her and her smile coupled with a thumbs up had a way of brightening even the hardest days. She had a heart full of love and compassion always showing care for her family and friends in her own special way. Though young she left a lasting impression through her kindness, resilience and the genuine love she shared with others.

Though her time with us was far to short. Her life was filled with love, promise and meaning. She will be deeply missed. Always remembered and forever loved

Closing Prayer

Heavenly Father we thank you for the precious gift of Phaniya life. Through our hearts are heavy with grief we are grateful for the love, joy and memories she shared with us. Please surround er family and loved ones with your comfort and peace during this difficult time. Grant them strength when the days feel heavy and reassurance when the nights feel long.

Phaniya T. McKay

February 24, 2007 – February 9, 2026

With heavy heart, we announce the passing of Phaniya T. McKay, a beloved daughter, sister, granddaughter, nieces and friend. She will be forever remembered by all who knew and loved her.

Phaniya was born to Catherine Hollis and Shawn Holland who cherished her beyond words. As a daughter, she brought love, light and meaning into their lives. She shared a close bond with her siblings her brother: Darell Thompson and her sister: Kalise Holland who will always carry her memory in their hearts.

She is preceded in death by her grandmother: Kathy Hollis and Granddad: Alvin Hollis and aunt Katrell Hollis.

She leaves to cherish her memories Carmeal Watkins and her godmother Tasha (Toas) Rachel Evans, along with a host of cousins: Treveon, Corey, Satricia, Lorenzo, Diyah, Davion, Ke'Mari, Da'Ziyah along with many extended family members, friends and loved ones whose lives she touched in meaningful ways.

Phaniya truly valued her time at Wingate Oak Center from 2007-2026. Where she not only focused on her studies but also formed meaningful friendships that meant so much to her. She poured her heart into her roles at the YMCA Leading groups and mentoring Path Kids, always eager to connect with others and grow alongside them through every challenge and success
