

EXPRESSION OF THANKS

The family and close friends wish to express their heartfelt gratitude for all the love, support, and kindness shown during this time. Your compassion has been a great comfort to us.

PSALM 90:1-12

Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, Or ever You had formed the earth and the world, Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God. You turn man to destruction, and say, "Return, O children of men." For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it is past, and like a watch in the night. You carry them away like a flood; They are like a sleep. In the morning they are like grass which grows up: In the morning it flourishes and grows up; In the evening it is cut down and withers. For we have been consumed by Your anger, and by Your wrath we are terrified. You have set our iniquities before You, Our secret sins in the light of Your countenance. For all our days have passed away in Your wrath; We finish our years like a sigh. The days of our lives are seventy years; and if by reason of strength they are eighty years, Yet their boast is only labor and sorrow; For it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Who knows the power of Your anger? For as the fear of You, so is Your wrath. So teach us to number our days, That we may gain a heart of wisdom.

OBITUARY

James Ervin Broome, born on March 13, 1946, in St. Lucy, Barbados, passed away peacefully on February 8, 2026, at the age of 79. Known for his ever-present smile and kind spirit, James was a true gentleman—a gentle giant with impeccable old-fashioned manners. He dedicated part of his life to law enforcement, though the specifics remain private.

He was also a skilled mechanic, self-employed and deeply passionate about cars. Since 1976, he called his home his own, where he worked tirelessly on vehicles, ran a small storehouse, and sold beer and candy. There, he and his long-time partner, Patricia, built a life together and he lovingly helped raise her two children. He also shared a special bond with his brother Sylvester, who passed away.

James is survived by his siblings, Eric, Vernel, Darryl, Shirley, and Phyllis, as well as nieces, nephews, sisters-in-law, and close friends, including Vanessa, Joan, Charmaine, Nia, and Todd, along with the extended friends and the Simeon and Sutherland family.

James will be deeply missed by all who knew him, especially for his laughter, his kindness, and his favorite reminder: "You need Jesus."
