

Scripture:

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day."
— 2 Timothy 4:7-8

Her life was a blessing, her memory a treasure,
and she is loved beyond words and missed
beyond measure.

Poem:

A Mother's Love Is Forever
A mother's love is endless,
A bond that cannot part.
Though she may leave this world,
She never leaves our hearts.

Her kindness, strength, and guidance
Will stay with us each day.
A mother's love surrounds us still
And gently leads the way.

Obituary

Mary Magdalene Lewis, affectionately known as “Sweet,” was born on March 25, 1953, in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to the late Mildred Lee Wright and Adolphus Wright Sr. She was a woman of quiet strength, enduring grace, and unwavering love.

Mary received her education in Queens, New York, and later earned her degree. She faithfully served as a Cardiac Technician until her retirement in 2017. Throughout her career, she demonstrated compassion, professionalism, and a sincere dedication to caring for others.

Family was the foundation of Mary’s life. She cherished her loved ones deeply and believed wholeheartedly in the importance of unity, loyalty, and presence. Soft-spoken yet strong, thoughtful yet discerning, Mary carried herself with dignity and intention in all that she did. She found joy in singing, dancing, decorating her home, and listening to gospel music. Cooking was one of her greatest expressions of love. Those who gathered at her table knew they were recipients of her care and devotion.

Mary treasured moments shared with close friends and family. Whether enjoying a meal, sharing laughter, or simply spending time together, she created lasting memories that will be held dear for generations to come.

Mary accepted God as her Lord and Savior and remained steadfast in her faith until He called her home on February 9, 2026.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mildred Lee Wright and Adolphus Wright Sr.; her sister Gail Wright; her brother, Ivon Wright; as well as her beloved sons, David Wright and Alqui Wright.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her loving children: Kenneth Wright, Jerrick Wright, Sheannell Hollinger (spouse Venice Hollinger), Latisha Wright, and Alicia Lewis; her devoted siblings: Gloria Wright, Adolphus Wright Jr., Johnnie Wright, and Harold Wright; her cherished grandchildren: James Austin, Chance Taylor, CheyAuntae Austin, and Nyhla Hollinger; her beloved godson, Robert Campbell; along with a multitude of extended family and friends.

Scripture:

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day.”

— 2 Timothy 4:7–8
