Satisfaction Is Our Business,
...Because Families Deserve The Best!

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF
Cordelia Brigget Johnson

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:"-Ecclesiastes 3:1

Cordelia B. Johnson was born on January 4, 1951, in Boynton Beach, Florida to the late parents of Deacon Mose and Nathalee Weatherspoon.

Cordelia was a graduate of the Palm Beach County Public School system. She thoroughly enjoyed dancing and marching as a majorette in the infamous Carver High School Marching Band. Cordelia met the love of her life, Robert L. Johnson, Sr., of 60 years and together they had three children. Cordelia's focus on life was being a great wife and mother, yet she kept busy pursuing other endeavors.

Cordelia followed her purpose to help others by completing certifications and licenses to serve in private duty nursing and as a respiratory therapist for many years along with pursuing a career as a licensed cosmetologist. She really enjoyed serving as the family's hair stylist. Cordelia was infamously known for giving folks "The Best Jheri Curl in Town." Cordelia's final chapter of employment was with Broward County School Board Pupil Transportation where she served as a school bus driver for 44 years. Cordelia elected to drive children with special needs where her heart, skills, and passion to serve the most vulnerable brought her great joy. She was a member of Bible Teachers International, Inc. for 38 years where she served in different capacities. Cordelia was a very hard worker. She received several awards for her service from her job, the parents of the children she drove and from her church.

She was a quiet, gentle soul who was loved by her family, husband, and friends. God called Cordelia to her heavenly home on February 22, 2026.

Cordelia was preceded in death by her son Terence X. Johnson, her parents Deacon Mose and Nathalee Weatherspoon and two brothers – Moses Jerome Weatherspoon and Roosevelt Bassie.
