OBITUARY

Willie Eugene “Mr. Gene” Gamble was born December 04, 1948, in Fitzgerald, Georgia, peacefully passed away in his sleep with his devoted wife by his side in Lauderhill, Florida. He leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and unwavering dedication to his family. He was the beloved son of Mr. Roosevelt and Laverne Gamble as well as the youngest of three siblings. Baptized at an early age, Gene a faithful member of Mount Olive Baptist Church in Fitzgerald, Georgia, where he attended Sunday school and nurtured his early spiritual foundation. Gene attended Monitor High School, where he proudly served as a drummer in the school band and graduated with the Class of 1966. Following graduation, he enlisted in The U.S. Marine Corps serving honorably for three years. While serving in the Marines, he completed a tour of duty in Vietnam and attained the rank of Sergeant. His commitment to duty and country reflected his strong character and sense of responsibility. After receiving an honorable discharge from The Marines Corps, Gene married his childhood sweetheart and beloved wife of fifty-seven years, Betty Jean Wilcox of Fitzgerald, Georgia. The couple relocated to Hollywood, Florida and later settled in Fort. Lauderdale, Florida until God called him home. Gene was employed at Mack Industries for several years, before pursuing entrepreneurship and establishing his own business, Gene’s Sprinkler. Gene was a generous and compassionate man, known for helping others often giving selflessly of himself. He was deeply loved and respected by many.

A hardworking and devoted family man, Gene ensured that his wife and four children were well provided for. Though he endured several medical challenges, and tolerated much pain, he carried himself with dignity and pride. Gene leaves behind to cherish his memory his wife Betty Jean Gamble of Lauderhill, FL, son, Willie Eugene Gamble Jr of Port St. Lucie FL, daughter, Benita Lafaye Gamble of Atlanta, GA, and son, Lamond Gamble of Lauderhill, FL. He leaves behind seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren. He leaves behind four sisters-in-law, Mildred (Ray) Taylor, Annie Pearl (Carl) Boney, Jurlene Stephens all of Fitzgerald, GA and Rutha Wimberly of Raleigh, NC. Gene also leaves a host of cousins, relatives, and friends. Gene is preceded in death by his father and mother Roosevelt and Laverne Gamble, daughter Ramada. F. Jimpson, sister Jaqueline Wilcox, brother, Joe Luis Gamble, niece Camilla Wilcox, aunts Emma Jackson, Margaret Anderson, uncles John Sirmans, Joseph Sirmans, and Shelly Sirmans, brothers-in-law Kenneth Wilcox, William Stepherson, and Samuel Stephens, sister-in-law Mary Dukes, Grandmother Willie Mae Gamble.

Mr. Willie Eugene Gamble
“Death ends a life, not a relationship”
“To the world you were just one person,
but to us you were the world”

I will forever miss you; you are loved, you will never be forgotten until we meet again. I will continue to love and cherish all our memories we had together.

Love You,
Your Wife Betty J. Gamble
