

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker, for some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward and find an everlasting peace,*

His Story

Thomas was born on January 17, 1939 in Fort Lauderdale Florida. He was born an only child to the late Charles Harold and Vannie Fiester, he was reared in holiness through his grandparents John and Rachel Nathan. He was raised in a Pentecostal home and was taught the fear of god at an early age.

He also had one step sister who preceded him in death. He attended high school at Dillard High.

As a young boy Thomas was very intelligent, hardworking and musically inclined. In his early years he would bless the congregation of righteousness with his drumming talents. He also worked for various friends and family members in his youth, that tenacity led to him owning his own landscaping business for a number of years. His true passion grew from his time with his stepfather learning about the funeral business. Those experiences led him to begin working at Benton Funeral Home, Mills Funeral Home & Mitchell Funeral Home. He worked in funeral homes for many years and eventually transitioned to McWhite's Funeral home where he eventually retired.

In 1957 he married the late Marjorie Childs Harold and from that union birthed five daughters ; Debra Wiggins, Gale Grant (deceased) Colleen Dixon (deceased) Desha Harold Soumila (Abudul), & Shelia Harold Maccarone (Salvatore). In 1979 he married Doris Benefield and from that union birthed two children; Zeli Scott (Anthony) and his only son Andre Harold. He leaves behind 14 grandkids, 15 great grandkids and 3 great, great grandkids as well as a host of nieces. Nephews, cousins and friends.

Thomas will be remembered for his sense of humor, sarcasm, business savvy mindset, superior style, and appreciation of music. Most of all he will be remembered for the immense love he had for his family.
