

A LETTER TO MY HUSBAND

*It's hard to believe,
you're no longer here.
Words cannot describe how this makes me feel.*

*You've passed on
to the other side,
though I wish you could still be here with me.*

*You were a remarkable man
Dependable, loving, and caring
You were the center of my world for 37 wonderful years.*

*You were one in a million to me.
You made me laugh, you made me smile
You were my companion and dear friend.
You were a wonderful husband from beginning to end.*

*Your love showed me how good life could be,
Your death show me how cruel, life sometimes is But good or bad, life has to go on even though it's not easy to carry on.*

*Forever will you live on, in my heart and mind.
Forever will you live in my thoughts and never die.
With love always, I remember you,
With fond memories, I think of you
With hope I believe we'll meet again
Somewhere, Somehow, Someplace.*

*I Love You Kenneth,
Always and Forever
Your Loving Wife, Nancy*

A Note of Gratitude

*We are most grateful for friends like you, who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours of sorrow. Your prayers, visits, calls, flowers, and every act of kindness have given us strength and inspiration for the facing of this hour.
May God forever bless each of you.*

“The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. He restores my soul: He guides me in the paths of righteousness for the sake of His name. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.”

Kenneth Curtis White was born on November 22, 1961, in Colleton County, South Carolina, to the late David White and the late Nell White. He was the first born of triplets, alongside his sisters, Katherine Young and the late Kathleen White, who were born on Thanksgiving Day.

At an early age, Kenneth was baptized at St. James the Greater Catholic Church. Kenneth attended the public schools of Hampton County and was a proud graduate of Wade Hampton High School, Class of 1980.

Following graduation, Kenneth began his career at a manufacturing plant in Yemassee, South Carolina. He later joined International Paper, later known as Georgia-Pacific, in Rincon, Georgia, where he worked as a machine operator. Through hard work, dedication, and perseverance, Kenneth advanced to the position of Machine Operator Line Manager. After 30 years of faithful service and countless hours of commitment, he retired with pride and honor.

On February 11, 1989, Kenneth married the love of his life, the former Nancy Smart. Together, they shared 37 years of love, devotion, and partnership. Kenneth was a loving and caring husband who was deeply devoted to his wife and family. He created a home that was warm, welcoming, and rooted in love, compassion, and care for others. He was always there to support, serve, and encourage everyone around him.

Kenneth especially loved Thanksgiving, perhaps because he was born on that special day. He enjoyed cooking for family and friends, sharing laughter, reminiscing about younger days, and creating cherished memories. Known as a “secret joker,” he loved telling jokes and bringing smiles to those around him.

To know Kenneth was to love him. He never met a stranger, and everyone who encountered him quickly grew fond of his quiet and gentle spirit. He was truly a gentle giant whose kindness and love were felt by all.

Kenneth was a devoted fan of the South Carolina Gamecocks and proudly cheered them on. He was also an Amazon shopaholic, an avid fisherman who loved spending time by the water to think, relax, and unwind, and a frequent visitor of flea markets where he searched for gadgets and treasures for his next project. When he wasn't fishing or treasure hunting, he enjoyed watching football and his favorite western shows.

In addition, to his parents, he is preceded in death by (3) Brothers: Freeman White, Andrew White and David White, Jr.; (2) Sisters: Mary Magood and his triplet sister: Kathleen White; (1) Daughter: Darlene Smart; (1) Grandson: Russell Smart.

On Thursday, May 14, 2026 Kenneth peacefully departed this life to be with the Lord in the comfort of his home.

He leaves to cherish an astonishing legacy, his loving and devoted wife of 37 years; Nancy White, of the home; (1) Daughter: Hermene Smart Plummer; Lakeland, FL; (4) Grandchildren: Steven Smart; Fairfax, SC; Joshua (Brandy) Smart; Aiken, SC; Autumn Smart; Atlanta, GA; and Markeith Breeland; Allendale, SC; (9) Great – Grandchildren: Ty ‘ Queze Smart, Darreonia Smart, Zyrion Devoe, Derwin Devoe, Khloe Smart, Rhyann Platts, Gabby Smart, Justic Smart, and Journee Devoe; (5) Sisters: Nell (Roy) Washington; Jonesville, SC; Margaret Whitaker; Walterboro, SC; Barbara Smalls; Dale, SC; Rose (Calvin) Coleman; Seabrook, SC; and Katherine (Larry) Young; Yemassee, SC; (4) Sisters – In – Law: Retha Miley, Carolyn Allen both of Fairfax, SC; Shirley Jackson, and Hattie White; Savannah, GA; (5) Brothers – In – Law: Angus Ritter, Herbert Jackson, Jr., Troy Jackson, Ricky Jackson, and Chester Jackson; Devoted Niece: Tamekia Judge, Seabrook, SC. A host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and sympathizing friends.
