~ OBITUARY ~

“And He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain, the first things have passed away.” Revelation 21:4

Deacon James Malcolm Fredrick, Sr. was born on August 13, 1946, in Allendale County. He was the son of the late Willie Fredrick and the late Anna Ash Fredrick Hicks.

He was educated at C.V. Bing School, Allendale, South Carolina.

Later in life, he sought and developed a closer relationship with God. He became a devoted member of Emmanuel RMUE Church, where he was later ordained as a Deacon. He also attended New Beginning Outreach Ministry under the leadership of Pastor Leonora Baggs. On March 24, 2024, he fully gave his life to Christ.

In 1964, Deacon Fredrick married the love of his life, the former Hazel Simpson. At the young ages of 17 and 18, the couple relocated to Fort Lauderdale, where they began building their life together. In July 1966, they were blessed with their first son. During this time, he worked in lawn maintenance with Sun CoSat Lawn Care before later joining his brother’s lawn care business.

Eventually, he returned home to South Carolina to help care for his brothers and sisters while his mother worked as a midwife in Charleston. He worked various jobs before beginning employment at the plant in Allendale, South Carolina. In 1969, he and Hazel welcomed a daughter into their family, and around 1970 they were blessed with another daughter.

In 1982, he began working at BASF Corporation Fibers Division (Bardiche) in Allendale, South Carolina, where he later received a Ten-Year Service Award. On January 1, 1990, he earned a Twelve-Year Perfect Attendance Certificate. Between 1992 and 1995, the plant transitioned from Bardiche to Queen’s Carpet. During this season of life, four more children were added to the family. After Queen’s Carpet closed, the facility was acquired by Shaw Industries in August 1998.

Entrepreneurship was also a part of his journey. Around 1978, he owned and operated “The Fredrick’s Café” and later established “The Fairfax Seafood Market,” which he and his family operated for sixteen years before selling the business.

Deacon Fredrick faithfully served his community as a Volunteer Firefighter in Fairfax after returning home from Florida. His dedication earned him several honors, including a Bravery Award, a Fifteen-Year Service Award (1985–2000), and a Twenty-Year Service Award (1984–2004).

He also worked as a newspaper carrier for The State newspaper in Columbia, South Carolina, beginning in 1978 in Fairfax, and later delivered the News and Courier in Allendale, South Carolina.

He was an active member of the NAACP, a Mason, and a member of the Barton Ranger Hunting Club.

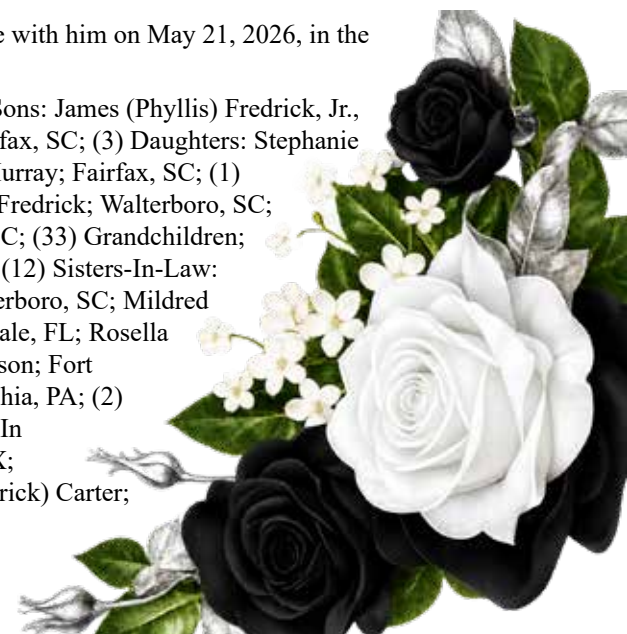

In his spare time, he enjoyed shrimping in St. Helena Island alongside Buck Cooler, whom he considered a brother for more than thirty years.

Deacon James Malcom Fredrick, Sr. leaves behind a legacy of faith, hard work, service, entrepreneurship, and love for family and community that will forever be remembered by all who knew and loved him.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents: William Henry Fredrick and Elizabeth Fredrick; Shakespeare Ash and Carolina Ash; (4) Brothers: George Fredrick, William Fredrick, Melvin Fredrick, and Herbert Lee Fredrick; (4) Sisters: Willie Mae Fredrick – Penn, Betty Ann Fredrick – Sanders, Elizabeth Fredrick – Eaton, and Carolyn Fredrick Young – Idy; (3) Aunts: Sadie Ash, Geneva Brown, and Jannie King.

The flood gates of eternal life opened, and God has called one of his leaders home to be with him on May 21, 2026, in the comfort of his daughter’s home at 08:06 P.M.

FROM YOUR LOVING WIFE

A Strong Christian Wife

To my beloved husband

My best friend, my protector, and my partner in Faith

Today, my heart grieves deeply, yet I thank God for the gift of your life. You were more than a husband to me; you were a man of strength, wisdom, prayer, and love. Through every season, you stood as the covering of our home, leading with quiet faith and steady hands.

You loved your family faithfully, and you loved God wholeheartedly. Even in difficult days, you showed us what it meant to trust the Lord. Your prayers filled our home, your sacrifices carried our family, and your love gave us comfort and security.

Death has separated us for a moment. I hold tightly to the promises of God. I know this is not goodbye forever. Because of Christ, we have the hope of eternal life and the assurance that we will meet again.

Your absence leaves a space no one can fill, but your legacy will continue through the lives you touched, the family you loved, and the faith you lived before us daily.

Thank you for every prayer you prayed over me.
Thank you for every burden you carried quietly.
Thank you for every moment of love, patience, and devotion.

I release you into the arms of the Lord, trusting that Heaven has welcomed you with peace and rest.

Until we meet again, my love, I will cherish your memory, honor your legacy, and continue walking in the faith we shared together.

"Well done, good and faithful servant." Matthew 25:23
"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18

Hazel Fredrick

FROM YOUR LOVING CHILDREN

As We Sat By Your Bedside

As we all sat by your bedside,
Watching you slowly drift away,
Our hearts were breaking silently,
Wishing somehow you could stay.

We held our hands, we spoke your name,
And prayed through every tear.
Through your strength was fading fast,
Our love remained so near.

The room was filled with sorrow,
Yet also filled with grace,
As Heaven gently opened
To welcome your embrace.

Though we were not ready
To let you leave our sight,
God called His weary servant home.
To every lasting light.

And while our hearts still ache today,
We find comfort knowing this:
You left this world surrounded by love,
And entered Heaven's bliss.

Until we meet again, your memory
will never fade.
For a father's love and presence, it can never be taken away.

Loving Children,
