Mrs. Frankie Echols Shropshire

Frankie Echols Shropshire was born November 09, 1930 in Summerville, Georgia. She was the daughter of the late Adell Terrell Echols and Abb Echols. She was preceded in death by her sister Myrtle Thurman and husband John (Ed) Shropshire.

Frankie was a nurse(LPN) by training. She served at Northwest Georgia Regional Hospital where she retired from. She also provided services at Fifth Ave Nursing Home.

Frankie was married to John(Ed) Shropshire for 44yrs. They decided to reside in Rome, Georgia where many memories were created. Their union brought together 2 daughters of Frankie, Linda Price and Vanessa McHenry and 2 sons of John, Maurice McConnell and James Printup. Their marriage gave birth to a daughter, Beverly Shropshire.

Frankie's greatest service was given to her beloved Church, Springfield Missionary Baptist Church. She was vibrant member where she participated in many organization. She served on the Goldie T. Collins Southside Missionary Circle, a Sunday School teacher, an Usher and Nurses Guild. Frankie was on the Mother's Board where she was the board President. She has held the position since 1972 until her passing on March 16, 2023(51yrs). Through many programs, events, celebrations and countless Revivals, Church Anniversaries, she enjoyed every minute of her Church and Church family.

Frankie is survived by daughters; Linda Price, Vanessa McHenry and Beverly Chisolm(Anthony); sister in-law JoAnn Shropshire; grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of family members and friends. Her best special friends; Mildred McDaniel and Artilia Jones.
