She Is Gone

Flower Bearers
Nieces and Cousins

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want:
Smile, Open Your Eyes, Love and Go On.

Her Loving Story

Her story began on September 23, 1950 in LaFayette, GA. Sheron's late parents, William Howard and Clara Elizabeth Burse Stamper raised their children to love the Lord, to have pride in their family, and the importance of a good education. Sheron was a graduate of LaFayette High School of LaFayette, GA. After graduation, she entered the work force, working for the Roper Company for many years before retiring.

Her story consisted of spending time with family and supporting the young members in their various activities. Sheron was known as a loving and caring person who never met a stranger. When she entered a room her bright smile warmed the hearts of all there. Sheron believed in people and was there to help when help was needed. She was a lady who worked hard and enjoyed life. A lady who shopped in thrift stores and loved relaxing as she listened to music. Yes, this lady, Ms. Sheron Stamper began a new chapter in her life on Thursday, August 10, 2023, when she transitioned from this earthly life. Sheron is now united with her loved ones who preceded her; her parents, William and Clara Stamper and three brothers, Larry, Emmanuel, and Allen Stamper.

Her story hasn't ended. Sheron's memories will be forever in the hearts of her two sisters, Maudell Wheeler, Mary Sue Stamper, of LaFayette, GA; brother, Daniel (Lynn) Stamper of Chattanooga, TN; aunt, Bertha Kathleen Burse, of Rossville, GA; nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
