Grace and Mercy

By Jori McDaniel

You never complained about your condition.

You never once broke your pace.

You took every single day you had left, and lived each day with grace.

You knew your life was fading, but your light never ceased to shine.

You harnessed its power and by a sweet miracle, God gave you supernatural time.

I cannot explain how broken our hearts feel in this hour.

But, I know God ordained all things by his sovereign power.

We long for answers to the questions - why did you have to leave and how could this be?

But, one thing we know for sure, God came to set you free.

We hurt because you loved us and we loved you too.

But, now we are left with the question, what are we going to do without you?

When we look back at the clues from your life, we can interpret the answers:

Number one: Live in God's presence

Number two: Trust His Plan

Number three: Our lives are not our own, and we don't always have to understand

Number four: Never ever stop thanking God

And last, we exist because of God's continuous grace, yet we depart because of His infallible mercy.

Inspiration

Our hearts are shattered beyond repair when we lose our loved ones. It's comforting to know God's heart also breaks when we feel sorrow and pain. We are His beloved children. His steadfast love is beyond our understanding. When a child falls, her Mother steps in quickly to bandage her wound. We are thankful to be children of a loving God who bandages our broken hearts when they've become shattered by grief and sorrow.

“This Chapter: A Celebration of My Earthly Life, but My Next Chapter will be in Heaven”
by Preeya Lashawn Mosley Fain

June 6, 1973 – In the beginning...time to sprout. | October 21, 2023 – In the end...time to be plucked.

How it begins, I was born on June 6, 1973, at 11:34 A.M. to my parents Wayne & Annie Mosley, who welcomed their first child—me, Preeya Lashawn Mosley. I was blessed to be able to call them Mom & Dad. I also love them both very much. I was also the first grandchild to the late Columbus (Bo) & Hattie Mae Mostiller, and the fourth grandchild to the late Hamp Sr. & Jessie Mosley. It was also a blessing to have known both sets of my grandparents. I had one sibling, my baby brother, Alex Mosley—who has been an awesome brother. I love you. He gave me my “SL”, my sister-in-law, Erica.

I was educated in the Chattooga County School system, where I met my high school sweetheart and later married, John Fain Jr. I gained a father & mother-in-law in John Fain Sr. & Vanessa Fain. After high school, I attended Walker Tech, graduating with a Cosmetology degree. After losing interest in Cosmetology, I continued my career at Windstream, then BellSouth as a Customer Service Rep. To get a local job near home, in 2008, I began my employment with the City of Summerville, GA as a Billing Clerk.

I joined Oak Hill Missionary Baptist Church at an early age because all the young kids got up to get saved at the same time. Later, I rededicated my life because I knew to whom I belonged. Through every test and trial God has been good to me. I’ve gone through some health challenges, but He has been with me all the time. I never lost my hope, my faith, because I knew if my healing didn’t come on this side, I shall be healed in my new Home one day and be with the Lord in all his Glory.

My Bae – He took my hand in Holy Matrimony on October 7, 1998, and made me his wife, Preeya Mosley Fain. Now with him is how I lived my life until death we do part. We took those vows and took them to heart. We shared good times, and Lord knows we had some bad ups and downs but stuck it out. A lot of couples tried and didn’t make it, but we made it through. After 25 years, you still made me smile, laugh and showed me love. Love you Bae.

To my Girls – With great joy, it was a love like no other to become a mother of two beautiful young ladies, Miss Desiree Fain and Miss Jania Fain. And even though 7 years apart, they both hold a special place in my heart. May you continue to carry on, put God first and follow your heart and your dreams. Mama loves you, but God loves you best.

I leave a lot of cherished memories with my niece, Rachel and nephew, Zander. Aunt Preeya will always love you and was proud to call you my niece and nephew. I also leave cherished memories with my in-laws gained after marriage, my aunts, my uncles, my cousins, my sister-cousins, and my Sistas.

Things happen and sometimes you have no control. You just take it one day at a time. Thank the Lord for the good days. Try to find the best in every situation. And even on the bad days, just know that Better Days are coming. Just keep pushing, don’t give up. If you don’t know the Lord, my prayer is that anyone reading my obituary would now be changed.

Until we meet again, this is My Story.
